Privileges and immunities to apply to contractors of Executing Agency. Schedule.

SCHEDULE

Section 15.

1. Immunity from legal process in respect of all acts performed by them in their official capacity in the execution of the project.

2. Immunity from national service obligations.

3. Immunity from immigration restriction.

4. The privilege of bringing into the country reasonable amounts of foreign currency for the purposes of the project and for the personal use of such personnel, and of withdrawing any such amounts brought into the country, or in accordance with the relevant foreign exchange regulations, such amounts as may be earned therein by such personnel in the execution of the project.

5. The same repatriation facilities in the event of international crises as are accorded diplomatic envoys.

6. All personnel of the Executing Agency's contractors shall enjoy inviolability for all papers and documents relating to the Institute.

7. The Government shall either exempt from, or bear the cost of, any taxes, duties, fees or levies which it may impose on any foreign firm or organisation which may be retained by the Executing Agency and on the foreign personnel of any such firm or organisation in respect of—

- (a) the salaries or wages earned by such personnel in the execution of the project;
- (b) any equipment, materials and supplies brought into the country for the purposes of the project or which, after having been brought into the country, may be subsequently withdrawn therefrom; and
- (c) as in the case of concessions currently granted to the United Nations experts, any property brought, including one privately owned automobile per employee, by the firm or organisation or its personnel for their personal use or consumption or which, after having been brought into the country, may subsequently be withdrawn therefrom upon the departure of such personnel.

8. The privileges and immunities to which such firm or organisation and its personnel may be entitled, may be waived by the Executing Agency where, in its opinion or in the opinion of the United Nations Development Programme, the immunity would impede the course of justice and can be waived without prejudice to the successful completion of the project or to the interest of the United Nations Development Programme.

9. The Executing Agency shall provide the Government with the list of personnel to whom the privileges and immunities enumerated above shall apply.
