PART I

ESTABLISHMENT, MANAGEMENT, FUNCTIONS AND POWERS OF THE INSTITUTE

3. There is hereby established the National Institute of Higher Education (Research, Science and Technology), hereinafter referred to as “the Institute” which is a body corporate.

4. (1) The Institute shall be managed by a Board of Governors comprising—

   (a) fourteen members appointed by the President, one of whom shall be appointed Chairman and another Deputy Chairman; and

   (b) the President of the Institute who is ex officio a member of the Board.

   (2) Appointed members shall, subject to subsection (5) hold office for a term of three years and are eligible for reappointment.

   (3) Where a casual vacancy occurs on the Board by reason of death, resignation or termination of appointment the President shall appoint another person to fill the vacancy for the period of the unexpired term of office of the vacating member in the same manner in which the appointments to the Board are required by this Act to be made.

   (4) The President may appoint a temporary member to the Board where an appointed member has been granted leave of absence or is otherwise temporarily unable to serve on the Board.

   (5) An appointed member may resign his appointment by giving one month’s notice in writing to the President.

   (6) The appointment of any person to the Board and the termination of appointment of any person whether by death, resignation or otherwise shall be notified in the Gazette.
(7) The Board may pay to its members other than the President of the Institute such remuneration and allowances as the Minister may determine.

5. (1) There shall be a President of the Institute appointed by the President on the advice of the Minister.

   (2) The President of the Institute shall be the Chief Executive Officer of the Board and shall be responsible to the Board for the day to day management, administration, direction and control of the Institute.

   (3) The President of the Institute shall be appointed for a term of five years and shall be eligible for reappointment.

   (4) The President of the Institute shall be paid such remuneration and be given such other terms and conditions of employment as the President acting on the advice of the Minister may determine.

   (5) The President of the Institute may resign his appointment by giving six months’ notice in writing to the President.

   (6) The President may on the advice of the Minister terminate the appointment of the President of the Institute—

       (a) by giving six months’ notice in writing; or

       (b) in the case of serious misconduct, without notice.

   (7) The period of notice referred to in subsections (5) and (6) may, be reduced by mutual agreement between the President of the Institute and the Institute.

   (8) The appointment and termination of appointment of the President of the Institute whether by death, resignation or otherwise shall be published in the Gazette.

6. (1) The Board shall meet at least once every quarter and at such other times as may be necessary to transact the business of the Institute.
(2) The Chairman or in his absence the Deputy Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Board, save that in the case where both the Chairman and Deputy Chairman are absent, the Members present may choose one of their number not being the President of the Institute to preside at that meeting.

(3) The Board may make Rules for the regulation of its proceedings and the conduct of its business.

(4) Seven Members shall constitute a quorum.

(5) The decisions of the Board shall be by a majority of votes of members present and voting and in the case of an equality of votes the Chairman of the meeting at which the vote is taken shall have a second or casting vote.

(6) The Board shall be deemed to be properly constituted for all purposes, notwithstanding any vacancy in its membership or any defect in the appointment of any of its members.

7. A member who is a member of a company or other body or is a partner or is in the employment of a person or a company or other body or is married to or who is or whose spouse is a relative of a person who is interested in a contract or a proposed contract with the Institute that is the subject of consideration by the Board shall disclose the fact at the first meeting of the Board at which it is practicable for him to do so and shall take no part in the consideration of, or vote on, any question relating to such contract or proposed contract.

8. (1) The Board may appoint such number of committees as to the Board may seem fit and may delegate any of its functions to such committees.

(2) Membership of a committee under this section is not limited to members of the Board.

(3) Subject to the directions of the Board a committee may determine its own procedure and times and places of meetings.
(4) Where persons not being members are appointed to committees under this section, the Board with the approval of the Minister may determine the remuneration and allowances payable to such persons.

(5) The Board may reject the reports of any committee appointed under this section or adopt it with or without modifications.

(6) The Board may delegate any of its duties, functions and powers to the President of the Institute under such terms and conditions as it may prescribe.

(7) Any delegation of the Board’s duties, functions or powers to a committee or to the President of the Institute is revocable by the Board at will and such delegations do not preclude the Board from itself discharging the functions delegated.

9. The Board shall appoint a person to be Registrar of the Institute and such person shall be the Secretary to the Board and to the Institute and shall have such other duties as the Board considers fit.

10. (1) The Seal of the Institute shall be kept in the custody of the Registrar.

(2) The Seal of the Institute shall only be used by authority of the Board or a committee and every instrument to which the Seal is affixed shall be signed by a member and countersigned by the Registrar.

(3) All documents, other than those required by law to be under Seal, and all decisions of the Board may be signified under the hand of the Chairman, the President of the Institute, a member duly authorised, or the Registrar.

11. The Board shall consult with the Minister on matters of policy and in the discharge of its functions or the exercise of its powers the Board shall conform with any special or general directions of the Minister.
12. (1) Subject to section 11, the functions of the Institute are to—

(a) provide and promote scientific and technological services in the country;

(b) promote and develop an indigenous capability in science and technology relevant to the developmental needs of the country;

(c) assist national bodies and/or organisations in securing technology appropriate to their needs;

(d) (Repealed by Act No. 77 of 2000);

(e) promote and operate facilities for higher and continuing education and in particular to—

(i) undertake, promote and facilitate scientific and technological research and development and the provision of scientific and technological services;
