3. Where reference is made in this Act to a Registrar or a Superintendent Registrar in connection with any birth or death, or any register, the reference shall (unless the contrary is expressed) be deemed to be made to the Registrar who is the Registrar for the district in which the birth or death took place or who keeps the register in which the birth or death is or is required to be registered, or who keeps the register referred to, and to the Superintendent Registrar who superintends the Registrar as mentioned above.

4. The Registrar General shall keep at his office in Port-of-Spain a general register of births and deaths in Trinidad and Tobago.

5. The Registrar General shall send, once in every year, to the President a general abstract of the numbers of births and deaths registered during the twelve months ending on the last day of December then immediately preceding, in such form as the President from time to time may require; and every such annual general abstract shall be laid before Parliament.

SUPERINTENDENT REGISTRARS AND REGISTRARS

6. The President shall appoint such person as he sees fit as Superintendent Registrar of births and deaths within the City of Port-of-Spain, and such other person as he sees fit as Superintendent Registrar of births and deaths within the City of San Fernando.

7. (1) Each Revenue Officer in charge of a District Revenue Office shall be the Superintendent Registrar of births and deaths.

   (2) All fees received by Revenue Officers under this Act shall be paid into public funds.

8. Every Superintendent Registrar, with the approval of the Registrar General, may divide the city, town, county, or ward, of or for which he is Superintendent, into such and so many districts as he thinks fit; and from time to time, with the approval as mentioned above, may alter and vary the number of such districts; and every such district shall be called by a distinct name, and shall be a Registrar’s district, and the Superintendent Registrar shall appoint a person with such qualifications as the Registrar General may by any general rule declare to be necessary to be Registrar of births and deaths within each district, and in every case of vacancy in the office of Registrar shall forthwith fill up the vacancy; and every such Registrar shall hold his office during the pleasure of the Registrar General.

9. For every district for which a Registrar of births and deaths is appointed the Registrar shall have power, subject to the approval of the Superintendent Registrar, to appoint by writing under his hand a fit person to act as his Deputy in case of the illness or unavoidable
10. The Registrar General shall furnish to every Superintendent Registrar, for the use of the Registrars under his superintendence, a sufficient number of strong iron boxes to hold the register books to be kept by the Registrars; and every such box shall be furnished with a lock and two keys and no more, and one of the keys shall be kept by the Registrar, and the other key shall be kept by the Superintendent Registrar, and the register books of each district, while in the custody of the Registrar and not in use, shall be always kept in the register box, and the register box shall always be kept locked.

In every case in which any Registrar or Superintendent Registrar is removed from or ceases to hold office, all register boxes, keys, books, documents and papers in his possession as Registrar or Superintendent Registrar shall be given up as soon as may be convenient to his successor in office; and if any person refuses to give up any such box, key, books, documents or papers in such case any Justice for the district where the person is or resides, upon application for that purpose, may issue a warrant under his hand for bringing such person before the Magistrate of the district; and upon such person appearing, or not being found, the Magistrate may hear and determine the matter in a summary way; and if it appears to the Magistrate that any such box, key, books, documents, or papers are in the custody or power of any such person, and that he has refused or wilfully neglected to deliver them, the Magistrate shall commit the offender to prison, there to remain without bail until he has delivered up the same, or until satisfaction has been given to the person in whose custody the same ought to be; and the Magistrate may grant a warrant to search for the box, key, books, documents or papers, as in the case of stolen goods, in any dwelling house or other premises in which any credible witness proves upon oath that there is reasonable cause to suspect the same to be, and the same when found shall be delivered to the person in whose custody they ought to be.
12. Every Registrar and Deputy Registrar shall reside within the district of which he is Registrar or Deputy Registrar, and shall cause his name, with the addition of Registrar or Deputy Registrar (as the case may be) or the district for which he is so appointed, to be placed in some conspicuous place on or near the outer door of his own dwelling house, and the Superintendent Registrar shall cause to be printed and published in the city, town, county or ward which he superintends, a list of the names and places of abode of every Registrar and Deputy Registrar under his superintendence.

REGISTRATION OF BIRTHS

16. In the case of every child born alive, it shall be the duty of the father and mother of the child, and in default of the father and mother, of the occupier of the house or tenement in which, or the person in charge of the plantation or estate on which, the child is born, and of each person present at the birth, and of the person having charge of the child, to give to the Registrar, within forty-two days next after the births, information of the particulars required to be registered concerning the birth, and in the presence of the Registrar to sign the register.

17. Where a birth has, from the default of the parents or other person required to give information concerning it, not been duly registered, the Registrar may, at any time after the end of forty-two days from the birth, by notice in writing, require any of the persons required by this Act to give information concerning the birth to attend personally at the Registrar’s Office, or at any other place appointed by the Registrar within his district, within such time (not less than seven days after the receipt of the notice, and not more than three months from the date of the birth) as may be specified in the notice, and to give information, to the best of such person’s knowledge and belief, of the particulars required to be registered concerning the birth, and to sign the register in the presence of the Registrar; and it shall be the duty of such person, unless the birth is registered before the expiration of the time specified in the requisition, to comply with the requisition.

18. In case any living newborn child is found exposed, it shall be the duty of any person finding the child, and of any person in whose charge the child may be placed, to give, to the best of his knowledge and belief, to the Registrar, within seven days after the finding of the child, such information of the particulars required to be registered concerning the birth of the child as the informant possesses, and in the presence of the Registrar to sign the register.

19. (1) After the expiration of three months next after the birth of any child, a Registrar shall not register the birth except as provided in this section; that is to say, in case the birth of any child has not been registered as required above, the Registrar may, after three, and not later than twelve months next after the birth, by notice in writing, require any of the persons required by this Act to give information concerning the birth to attend personally at the Superintendent Registrar’s Office, within such time (not less than seven days after the receipt of the notice, and not more than twelve months after the date of the birth) as may be specified in the notice, and make before the Superintendent Registrar a solemn declaration, according to the best of the declarant’s knowledge and belief, of the particulars required to be registered concerning the birth, and sign the register in the presence of the Registrar and Superintendent Registrar; and upon any of the said persons attending before a Registrar and Superintendent Registrar, whether in pursuance of a requisition or not, and making such a declaration as mentioned above, and giving information concerning the birth, the Registrar shall then and there, in the presence of the Superintendent Registrar, register the birth according to the information of the declarant, and the Superintendent Registrar before whom the declaration is made shall, as well as the Registrar and declarant, sign the entry of the birth.

(2) After the expiration of twelve months next after the birth of any child, that birth shall not be registered except with the written authority of the Registrar General for registering the same, and except in accordance with the prescribed Rules, and the fact of such authority having been given shall be entered in the register.

(3) Any person who registers or causes to be registered the birth of any child in contravention of this section is liable to a fine of one thousand dollars.

20. (1) Any person required by this Act to give information concerning a birth, who removes before the birth is registered out of the district in which the birth has taken place, may, within three months after the birth, give the information by making and signing in the presence of the Registrar of the district in which he resides a declaration in writing of the particulars required to be registered concerning the birth; and the Registrar, on payment of the appropriate fee set out in the Second Schedule, shall receive and attest the declaration and send the same to the Registrar of the district in which the birth took place; and the last mentioned Registrar shall, in the prescribed manner, enter the birth in the register; and the entry so made shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Act, to have been signed by the person who signed the declaration.

(2) A person making a declaration in pursuance of this section in the case of any birth shall be deemed to have complied with the provisions of this Act as to giving information concerning that birth, and with any requisition of the Registrar made under this Act within the said three months to attend and give information concerning that birth.

21. (1) The Registrar shall not enter the name of any person as the father of a child born out of wedlock except—

(a) at the joint request of the mother and the person acknowledging himself to be the father of the child (in which case that person shall sign the register together with the mother); or

(b) at the request of the mother on production of—

(i) a declaration in the prescribed form made by the mother stating that the said person is the father of the child; and

(ii) a statutory declaration made by that person acknowledging himself to be the father of the child.

(2) If on registration of the birth of a child the name of no person has been entered in the register as the father, the Registrar may re-register the birth so as to show a person as the father—

(b) at the request of the mother on the production of—

(i) a declaration in the prescribed form made by the mother stating that the person in question is the father of the child; and
(iii) a statutory declaration made by that person acknowledging himself to be the father of the child, but no birth shall be re-registered as aforesaid except with the authority of the Registrar General and any such re-registration shall be effected in such manner as may be prescribed.

(3) If at any time after the registration of the birth of a child whose father’s name is not registered the Registrar General is satisfied that a paternity order in respect of the child has been made by the High Court, or by a Magistrate’s Court, or that the child’s parents were married after the registration he shall authorise the entry in the register of the name of the father and such other particulars relating to the father as are supplied to him.

21A. Where the birth of any child whose parents were not married to each other at the time of the child’s birth is registered pursuant to section 15, the name of or any other particulars relating to the father shall not thereafter be entered in the register unless the Registrar General is satisfied that—

(a) the parents of the child were married to each other; or

(b) a paternity order in respect of the child has been made by the High Court or by a Magistrate’s Court or both the mother and the person acknowledging himself to be the father of the child consent to the entry:

Provided that in the last-mentioned case, if the mother is dead or cannot be found, the consent of the father alone shall be sufficient.

21B. (1) The Registrar General shall, from the records and registers in his office, make and keep a correct register in respect of—

(a) all statutory declarations of the kind described in subsection (1) of section 9 of the Status of Children Act, filed in his office or of the duplicates or attested copies of such instruments;

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1) the Registrar General shall cause the registration of all declarations and duplicates and copies of declarations filed in his office to be numbered and otherwise systematically filed according to each calendar year and such register shall contain such other particulars as may be prescribed.

(3) The Registrar General shall cause all such statutory declarations and duplicates and copies of declarations to be indexed according to each calendar year and each index shall contain the number and such other particulars of the registration as may be prescribed.

(4) The Registrar General shall cause any certified copy of any such instrument, declaration or order as is referred to in the register kept in accordance with subsection (1) to be sealed and any such sealed copy shall be received as evidence relating to the birth to which it relates without any further or other proof of the instrument, declaration or order, as the case may be, and no certified copy purporting to be given in the said office shall be of any force or effect which is not so sealed.

22. (1) When the birth of any child has been registered and the name, if any, by which it was registered is altered, the parent or guardian of the child, or other person procuring the name to be altered, may, within twelve months next after the registration of the birth, deliver to the Registrar or Superintendent Registrar the certificate as mentioned below, and the Registrar or Superintendent Registrar, upon the receipt of that certificate, and on payment of the appointed fee, shall, without any erasure of the original entry, forthwith enter in the register book the name mentioned in the certificate as having been given to the child, and, having stated upon the certificate the fact of the entry having

Superintendent, may summon the nearest medical practitioner to view the dead body and to certify on the view, and according to the symptoms described to him by those who attended to the deceased person, what he conceives to be the cause of death; the medical practitioner is entitled to receive a fee for the certificate on such scale as may be prescribed by the President. The medical practitioner’s certificate shall be given to some person required by this Act to give information concerning the death, and the person shall deliver the certificate to the Registrar, and the cause of death as stated in that certificate shall be entered in the register together with the name of the certifying medical practitioner;

(d) where an inquest is held on the body of any deceased person, a medical certificate of the cause of death need not be given to the Registrar, but the certificate of the finding of the Coroner is sufficient;
where by reason of inability to obtain the services of a medical practitioner to view a dead body and to certify as in this section required, the Revenue Officer, police officer, Schoolmaster or other of the functionaries mentioned in this section may issue a certificate for the burial of the deceased person;

(f) if any person to whom a medical certificate is given by a registered medical practitioner in pursuance of this section fails to deliver that certificate to the Registrar, he is liable to a fine of one hundred dollars.

34. Every Superintendent Registrar and Registrar respectively shall be entitled to the fees specified in the Second Schedule, and every such fee shall be paid to him by the persons and on the occasions pointed out in that Schedule and may be recovered as a debt due to him, and, subject to the prescribed Rules, he may refuse to comply with any application voluntarily made to him until the fee is paid.

35. (1) Every Registrar, when and as required by the Chief Medical Officer for the purposes of the Board of Health, shall transmit by post or otherwise a return, certified under the hand of the Registrar to be a true return, of such of the particulars registered by him concerning any death as may be specified in the requisition of the Chief Medical Officer.

(c) an error of fact or substance in any such register may be corrected by entry in the margin (without any alteration of the original entry) by the officer having the custody of the register, upon payment of the appropriate fee set out in the Second Schedule and upon production to him by the person requiring the error to be corrected of a statutory declaration setting forth the nature of the error and the true facts of the case, and made by two persons required by this Act to give information concerning the birth or death with reference to which the error has been made, or in default of such persons then by two credible persons having knowledge of the truth of the case;

(d) where an error of fact or substance (other than an error relating to the cause of death) occurs in the information given by a Coroner’s certificate concerning a dead body upon which he has held an inquest, the Coroner, if satisfied by evidence on oath or statutory declaration that the error exists, may certify under his hand to the officer having the custody of the register in which the information is entered the nature of the error and the true facts of the case as ascertained by him on the evidence, and the error may thereupon be corrected by the officer in the register by entering in the margin (without any alteration of the original entry) the facts as so certified by the Coroner.

(3) Where more than twelve months have intervened between the day of a death or the finding of a dead body and the day of the registration of the death or the finding of the body, the entry or certified copy of the entry of the death in a register or in a certified copy of the register, is not evidence of the death, unless the entry purports to have been made with the authority of the Registrar General, and in accordance with the prescribed Rules.

38. Every person required to give information concerning any birth or death, or any living newborn child, or any dead body, who wilfully refuses to answer any question put to him by the Registrar relating to the particulars required to be registered concerning the birth or death, or fails to comply with any requisition of the Registrar made in pursuance of this Act, and every person who refuses or fails without reasonable excuse to give or send any certificate in accordance with the provisions of this Act, is liable to a fine of one hundred dollars for each offence; and the parent of any child who fails to give information concerning the birth of the child, as required by this Act, is liable to a like fine; and a person required by this Act to give information concerning a death in the first instance, and not merely in default of some other person is, if the information as is required by this Act is not duly given, liable to the same fine.

Any person who forges or falsifies any certificate or declaration or order under this Act, or, knowing any such certificate, declaration, or order to be false or forged, uses the same as true, or gives or sends the same as true to any person, is for each offence liable on summary conviction to a fine of four hundred dollars, and, on conviction on indictment to a fine, or to imprisonment for two years.

40. All notices, informations, declarations, certificates, requisitions, returns, and other documents required or authorised by this Act to be delivered, sent, or given to the Registrar General, a Superintendent Registrar, or a Registrar, or by a Registrar to a person who is required to give information concerning any birth or death, or who gives notice of any death, may be sent by post and the date at which they would be delivered to the person to whom they are sent in the ordinary course of post shall be deemed to be the date at which they are received; and in proving the sending, it shall be sufficient to prove that the letter was properly addressed and put into the post.

41. The particulars required to be registered concerning a birth or death shall be the particulars specified in Forms A and B respectively of the First Schedule, or as altered in pursuance of this Act.

42. Every Registrar shall make out an account four times in every year of the number of births and deaths which he has registered since the last quarterly account, and the Superintendent Registrar shall verify and sign the same, and the Comptroller of Accounts shall pay to the Registrar, on the certificate of the Registrar General, according to the scale set out in the Fifth Schedule.

43. (1) In the months of April, July, October and January, on such days as shall from time to time be appointed by the Registrar General, the Registrar of each district shall make and deliver to the Superintendent Registrar of his district, a true copy, on durable materials, certified by him under his hand according to Form C of the First Schedule, of all the entries of births and deaths in the register book kept by him since the last certificate; and the Superintendent Registrar shall verify the same, and, if found to be correct, shall certify the same under his hand to be a true copy; and if there has been no birth or death registered since the delivery of the last certificate, the Registrar shall certify the fact, and the certificate shall be delivered to the Superintendent Registrar as aforesaid, and countersigned by him; and the Registrar shall keep safely each of the register books until it is filled, and shall then deliver it to the Superintendent Registrar, to be kept by him with the records of his office.

(2) The Comptroller of Accounts shall pay to a Registrar for each copy of an entry of birth or death made under subsection (1) an allowance at the rate set out in the Fifth Schedule.

44. Every Superintendent Registrar shall, four times in every year, on such days as shall be named by the Registrar General, send to the Registrar General all the certified copies of the registers of births and deaths which he has received during the three calendar months next preceding such quarterly days of transmission respectively; and if it appears by the interruption of the regular progression of numbers or otherwise, that the copy of any part of any book has not been duly delivered to him, he shall procure, as far as possible consistent with the provisions of this Act, that the same may be remedied and supplied; and every Superintendent Registrar shall make out an account, four times in every year, of the number of entries in the certified copies sent to him during the last quarter, and the certified copies so sent to the Registrar General shall be thereafter kept in such order and manner as the Registrar General under the direction of the President, thinks fit, so that the same may be most readily seen and examined.

45. Every Registrar who has the keeping for the time being of any register of births or deaths shall, at all reasonable times, allow searches to be made of any register in his keeping, and shall give a copy certified under his hand of any entry or entries in the same, on payment of the appropriate fees set out in the Second Schedule.

51. Any Registrar who refuses or without reasonable cause omits to register any birth or death of which he has had due notice, and any person having the custody of any register book or certified copy thereof, or of any part thereof, who carelessly loses or damages the same, or carelessly allows the same to be damaged whilst in his keeping, is liable to a fine of two thousand dollars.

52. Every person who wilfully destroys or damages or causes to be destroyed or damaged, any such register book, or any part or certified copy of any part thereof, is guilty of an indictable offence.

53. The Forms in the First Schedule or forms as nearly resembling the same as circumstances admit, shall be used in all cases in which they are applicable, and when so used shall be valid in law.

54. (1) The Registrar General may, by Order, alter from time to time all or any of the forms contained in the First Schedule or in any order under this section, in such manner as may appear to him best for carrying this Act into effect, or may prescribe new forms for that purpose, and may make Regulations for prescribing any matters authorised by this Act to be prescribed.
(2) Any order made in pursuance of this section shall be laid before Parliament within thirty days after the issue of the same.

(3) Every form when altered in pursuance of this section shall have the same effect as if it had been contained in the First Schedule, and every regulation made in pursuance of this section shall while in force have the same effect as if it were enacted in this Act.
