An Act to deal with resumption of land under State Grants.

[15TH JUNE 1914]

1. This Act may be cited as the Resumption of Land Act.

2. (1) Whenever it is desired to resume land under the powers and for the purposes contained in a State grant, the authorised officer or Commissioner of State Lands or any surveyor duly authorised in writing by either of them may enter upon the land of any person for the purpose of ascertaining where such resumption shall be made and of surveying the land to be so resumed.

   (2) The authorised officer, the Commissioner or the surveyor as mentioned above, may be accompanied by such and so many assistants as may be required to enable him to carry out the purposes therein mentioned, and all such persons may remain on the land and re-enter upon the same as long and as often as may be reasonably necessary for the purpose of making any such resumption and survey.

   (3) Any person who—

      (a) assaults, hinders, or obstructs any person mentioned in this section; or

      (b) prevents or attempts to prevent any such person from entering or re-entering upon any such land as is mentioned in this section, is liable on summary conviction to a fine of one thousand dollars or to imprisonment for three months.

3. In this section, “authorised officer” means the officer authorised in writing for the purpose by the Minister responsible for Public Works.
3. (1) Whenever land is resumed under the powers for and the purposes contained in a State grant, the resumption shall not confer upon any person any right to compensation in respect of the land; except that compensation shall be payable in respect of—

(a) cultivation on the land actually so resumed; and

(b) cultivation on land adjacent to the resumed land which is damaged or destroyed by reason of any operations of any department of the Government or its servants or agents carried on on the land so resumed as mentioned above.

(2) No claim for compensation under this section shall be entertained or admitted unless made within twelve months of the claim arising.

4. The Minister may make Regulations for carrying out the provisions of this Act.
