(3) The cost of any work carried out by the Director of Surveys pursuant to subregulation (2) may be recovered from the person carrying out the work.

31. Prior to commencing any survey, the Trinidad and Tobago Land Surveyor shall obtain all information relevant to the proposed survey from those records normally available in the Land and Surveys Department and the office of the Registrar General.

32. Where a Trinidad and Tobago Land Surveyor considers that any doubt or discrepancy associated with a survey is relevant he shall disclose that doubt or discrepancy on his plan and in a written report to the Director of Surveys.

33. (1) For the purpose of ensuring that any survey complies with these Regulations, the Director of Surveys may cause a check survey to be made.

(2) Before commencing the check survey, the Director of Surveys shall advise the surveyor responsible for the survey to carry out a check and in all cases the checking officer shall be a Trinidad and Tobago Land Surveyor (T.T.L.S.) appointed with prior notice to the surveyor responsible for the survey.

(3) Where the surveyor appointed to carry out the check survey is not acceptable to the surveyor responsible for the survey, he may, within two weeks of the notification, inform the Director of Surveys his objection to the check survey by the T.T.L.S. setting out the reasons for his objection; and the Director of Surveys, if satisfied with the reasons, shall appoint another T.T.L.S. to carry out the check survey.

34. The Director of Surveys or the Board may request any surveyor to amend any patent error on his plan, invite comment or explanation on any apparent discrepancy or ambiguity, and following any comment or explanation, may request him to carry out additional survey or submit additional information, and the surveyor shall comply with all requests as promptly as practicable.

35. (1) Boundaries as originally marked are for all purposes true boundaries.

(2) In the re-survey of existing boundaries, the surveyor shall observe the principle that the boundaries as defined by survey marks set by the original surveyor are the true boundaries even where the survey marks are not the positions assigned to them by the data on the original plan.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subregulation (2), if any difference mentioned in the said subregulation is positively identified as arising from the survey mark not having been set originally as intended, and if the plan of the original survey, and the evidence derived from the re-survey clearly show the intention, the surveyor making the re-survey may reset the mark in accordance with the original intention, provided that:

(a) the positions of improvements in relation to the amended boundary are not adversely affected;

(b) the consent of all owners affected is first obtained.

(4) The Trinidad and Tobago Land Surveyor shall disclose the discrepancy and the action taken on his plan in a written report to the Director of Surveys.

36. Where a re-survey discloses difference in lengths of boundary measurements or areas recorded by previous surveys, the surveyor shall demonstrate that the difference is not due to encroachment on or by adjoining parcels of land.

37. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act or any other law to the contrary and unless there is evidence to the contrary a land surveyor shall delineate—

(a) the boundary of a parcel of land abutting the sea coast as the line of high water;

(b) the boundary of a parcel of land abutting a stream as the high bank of the stream determined at the normal level of the stream.

(2) In defining or redefining boundaries the Trinidad and Tobago Land Surveyor shall employ methods to achieve such accuracy as the purpose of the survey and the evidence available warrants.

38. Surveys shall be carried out with such equipment and by such methods as shall readily attain the standards of accuracy prescribed by these Regulations and land surveyors shall always apply such checks and tests to their work as to ensure that the said accuracy is attained.

39. All existing survey marks, fences, walls and other features providing or likely to provide evidence as the position of existing boundaries shall be included in any survey.

40. (1) Where necessary, field notes shall be reduced to a printed or written form suitable as a permanent record.

(2) The field notes shall constitute part of the permanent record of any survey and where they are collected in digital form the original shall be in a secure file and the surveyor shall prepare a printed record of the secure file.

(3) Every Registered Surveyor shall be responsible for the permanent custody of all field notes and of digital files prepared by him or under his supervision.

(4) A surveyor shall, on request in writing from the Director of Surveys or the Board, produce his field notes to the Director of Surveys within fourteen (14) days.

41. (1) All rules for the execution of cadastral surveys, recording of field notes, and the preparation of cadastral plans shall be established from time to time, by the Board, in consultation with the Institute and the Director of Surveys.

43. (1) Before commencing any survey, the Trinidad and Tobago Land Surveyor, shall cause notice to be given to all proprietors of lands lying adjacent to the parcel being surveyed.

(2) The notice to be given shall include the name of the surveyor who will be carrying out the survey, and the date and the time of the survey.

(3) Where lands are to be brought under the provisions of the Real Property Act, the purpose of the survey shall be stated and the period of the notice shall be seven clear days but in all other instances three clear days notice shall be given.
