Note on Adaptation

Certain fees in this Chapter were increased by the Commission under paragraph 4 of the Second Schedule to the Law Revision Act (Ch. 3:03). Where this occurs, a marginal reference in the form normally indicating an amendment is made to LN 51/1980 (the Legal Notice by which the President's approval was signified).

Note on Act No. 3 of 2004

LN 98/2004 brought Act No. 3 of 2004 into operation on May 31, 2004 with respect to the amendments made to this Act by the said Act No. 3 of 2004 with the exception of that part of section 10 which inserted section 13B and that part of section 18(a) which inserted section 28(1B). These sections, namely, section 13B and 28(1B) will come into operation at a later date to be fixed by the President by Proclamation.

Note on Act No. 2 of 2011

LN 23/2011 brought Act No. 2 of 2011 into operation on 25th February 2011 with respect to amendments made to this Act by Act No. 2 of 2011. Further, Act No. 2 of 2011 repealed section 28(1B) which was never brought into operation.

tube for firing explosives, or to form a detonator, or a projectile, which can be used (whether singly or in suitable combinations) as, or in connection with, a missile;

(g) everything declared by Order of the President to be ammunition;

“artillery” means any cannon, howitzer, mortar or flame-thrower;

“automatic firearm” means any firearm so designed or adapted that if pressure is applied to the trigger missiles continue to be discharged until pressure is removed from the trigger or until the magazine containing the missiles is empty;

“cannon” means a firearm that requires mounting and fires explosive shells or projectiles;

“certificate” means a certificate under this Act;

“Commissioner of Police” or “Commissioner” means the person appointed to hold or to act in the office of Commissioner of Police in accordance with section 123 of the Constitution;

“competent authority” means the Commissioner of Police, the Comptroller of Customs and Excise, the Chief Immigration Officer or the Chief of Defence Staff;

“controlled delivery” means the technique of allowing illicit or suspect consignments of firearms, ammunition and other related materials to pass out of, through, or into the territory of one or more States, with the knowledge and under the supervision of the competent authorities, with a view to identifying persons involved in the commission of offences under this Act;

“firearm” means any lethal barrelled weapon from which ammunition can be discharged or any prohibited weapon, and includes any component part of any such weapon and any accessory to any such weapon designed or adapted to diminish the noise or flash caused by firing the weapon, but does not include any air rifle, air gun, or air pistol, of a type prescribed by Order made by the President and of a calibre so prescribed;

“Firearm Dealer’s Licence” means a licence authorising the holder thereof to buy or sell or buy and sell at such place as may be specified in the licence firearms or ammunition of such type as may be so specified;

“Firearm Disposal Permit” means a permit authorising the holder thereof to dispose of the firearm or ammunition specified therein;

“Firearm Import Permit” means a permit authorising the holder thereof during such period as may be specified therein to import into Trinidad and Tobago from such source as may be specified therein such firearms or ammunition as may be so specified;

“Firearm User’s Licence” means a licence authorising the holder thereof subject to the terms and conditions specified in the licence, to be in possession of the firearm or ammunition so specified;

“Firearm User’s (Employee’s) Certificate” means a certificate issued pursuant to section 18;

“Flame-thrower” includes a tube or container capable of directing a sustained flame for any distance;

“Gunsmith’s Licence” means a licence authorising the holder thereof to carry on the business of repairing, testing or proving firearms or ammunition or such other business incidental to the foregoing as is permitted by the licence at such premises as may be specified in the licence;

“howitzer” includes a firearm designed for high angle firing of shells at low velocity;

“licence” means a licence under this Act;

“mortar” includes a small bore, muzzle-loading high angle of fire firearm or a firearm for firing of shells at high angles;

Ch. 78:01. “officer of Customs” means any officer within the meaning of section 2 of the Customs Act;

“permit” means a permit under this Act;

Ch. 15:01. “police officer” has the same meaning as in the Police Service Act, and includes a member of the Special Reserve Police established under the Special Reserve Police Act;

Ch. 15:03.

“prohibited weapon” means—

- (a) any artillery or automatic firearm;
- (b) any grenade, bomb or other like missile; or
- (c) any weapon of whatever description or design which is adapted for the discharge of any noxious liquid, gas or other thing;

“public place” means any place to which at the material time the public has access;

“Regulations” mean Regulations made under this Act;

“restricted person” means any person who has at any time within five years next before the event in relation to which the term is used—

- (a) been declared by a Court pursuant to section 3 to be a restricted person; or
- (b) been convicted of an offence involving violence and sentenced to a term of imprisonment exceeding three months;

“sell” includes exchange or to exchange in part only of the consideration, and “purchase” has a corresponding meaning;

“slaughtering instrument” means a firearm which is specially designed or adapted for the instantaneous slaughter of animals or for the instantaneous stunning of animals with a view to slaughtering them;

“vehicle” has the meaning assigned to that expression in the Motor Vehicles and Road Traffic Act.

Ch. 48:50.

(2) An Order made under paragraph (g) of the definition of “ammunition” in subsection (1) shall be subject to negative resolution of Parliament.

3. A Court before which a person is convicted of an offence under this Act (other than an offence against section 28), may declare that person to be a restricted person for the purposes of this Act.

Declaration of restricted person.

4. Except in the case of the grant of a licence, certificate or permit under Part II, the functions, powers and duties of the Exercise of Commissioner’s functions.

Commissioner of Police under this Act, may be exercised, by any police officer authorised by the Commissioner in that behalf.

PART I

- (g) subject to subsection (2) a person present at an athletic meeting who has in his possession such firearm and ammunition for the purpose of starting the races at that meeting;
 - (h) any person (including a restricted person) who came into possession of any firearm or ammunition in the capacity of executor or administrator of the estate of any deceased person, or Trustee in Bankruptcy or liquidator of any insolvent person or of any company in liquidation, during the period of thirty days after the day upon which he came into possession of such firearm or ammunition;
 - (i) any servant or agent of any of the persons referred to in paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) who has possession of any firearm or ammunition entrusted to him with the written permission of the Commissioner for delivery to the owner or to some person who is about to become the owner thereof in accordance with this Act;
 - (j) any officer of Customs or any police officer who has possession of any firearm or ammunition that came into his possession pursuant to this Act during such period as such firearm or ammunition is retained by him pursuant to this Act;
 - (ja) the curator of the Chaguaramas Military History and Aerospace Museum and the curator of the Museum established under the National Museum and Art Gallery Act, in respect of the firearms listed in the Schedule; Ch. 40:52.
 - (k) the owner of a firearm (not being a slaughtering instrument) or of any ammunition who is exempt from the payment of appropriate fee under section 39(2);
 - (l) (Deleted by Act No. 2 of 2011).

(2) Subsection (1)(f) and (g) shall not apply so as to exempt any person mentioned therein from the provisions of section 6(1) unless he has obtained from the Commissioner of Police permission in writing to possess such firearm and ammunition for such purpose.

(3) Nothing in subsection (1)(h) shall be taken to authorise any such person so coming into possession of a firearm or ammunition to carry such firearm or ammunition in any public place or in any way to use such firearm or ammunition and if any such person carries a firearm or ammunition in a public place or in any way uses such firearm or ammunition he is guilty of an offence under section 6(1) in addition to any other offence he may have committed.

(4) Nothing in section 6(1) shall be construed so as to make any person liable for an offence thereunder, if a firearm or ammunition is in the possession of any officer of a Court for the purpose only of any legal proceedings in which the firearm or ammunition is in the custody of the Court.

Carrying firearm or ammunition in public place.
[3 of 2004
2 of 2011].

8. Any person other than a Police Officer or a member of the Defence Force in both cases acting in his capacity as such or person in possession of a Firearm User's Licence is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine of forty thousand dollars and to imprisonment for eight years who carries any firearm or ammunition in a public place so prescribed by the President.

Offences relating to selling or transferring firearms or ammunition.
[3 of 2004
2 of 2011].

9. (1) Any person who sells or transfers a firearm or ammunition to any other person who does not hold or who is not exempted from holding a Firearm User's Licence is liable—

- (a) on summary conviction to a fine of seventy-five thousand dollars or imprisonment for eight years; or
- (b) on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for fifteen years.

(2) Any person is liable on summary conviction to a fine of forty thousand dollars or to imprisonment for ten years who purchase or acquire from, sells or transfers a firearm or ammunition to, or repairs, tests or proves any firearm or ammunition for, any other person whom he knows, or has reasonable cause to believe, to be—

- (a) a restricted person;
- (b) drunk or under the influence of drugs or of unsound mind;
- (c) at the time of such sale or transfer otherwise unfit to be entrusted with such a firearm or ammunition; or
- (d) under the age of twenty-five years.

(3) The provisions of this section shall apply whether or not the person selling or transferring a firearm or ammunition is the holder of a Firearm Dealer's Licence or, in the case of a person who repairs, tests or proves a firearm or ammunition, a Gunsmith's Licence.

(4) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (2), a person specified in section 6(2)(a) to (f) who commits an offence under subsection (1) or (2), is liable on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for twenty years.

10. (1) Without prejudice to any liability for the commission of an offence under any other law, a person who has in his possession or under his control in Trinidad and Tobago or elsewhere any firearm or ammunition with intent to sell or transfer such firearm or ammunition to any other person in Trinidad and Tobago for the purpose of the commission of any crime (including an offence under this Act) is liable—

Special offence as to possession of firearms in certain circumstances. [2 of 2011].

- (a) on summary conviction to a fine of fifteen thousand dollars and imprisonment for five years;
- (b) on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for fifteen years.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), where any firearms or ammunition is found in any ship, vessel, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance in Trinidad and Tobago, including in particular its territorial waters—

- (a) the ship, vessel, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance may be seized by an officer of Customs, police officer or by a member of the Defence Force;
- (b) the master or any person in control of such ship, vessel, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance, as the case may be, shall be deemed guilty of an offence under subsection (1), unless he proves that the firearms or ammunition were in the ship, vessel, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance without his consent, knowledge or connivance and that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of the offence.

(3) Nothing in subsection (2)(b) shall apply if the master or other person referred to in subsection (2) proves to the satisfaction of the Court that the firearms or ammunition are cargo properly manifested to consignees in Trinidad and Tobago or elsewhere, or are bona fide stores of any ship, vessel or aircraft, in the custody of the proper officer authorised for the purpose.

(4) Nothing in subsection (2) shall apply to any ship, vessel or aircraft belonging to the Naval or Air Forces of any other State, if permission to come into territorial sea of Trinidad and Tobago has been granted by the competent authority.

(5) Where any person is convicted of an offence under this section, the Court before which he is convicted shall order that the ship, vessel, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance, if any, used for the purpose of conveying the firearm or ammunition be forfeited and, upon such order being made the ship, vessel, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance, shall, unless an application under subsection (6) is successful, be sold and the proceeds of such sale paid into the general revenue.

(6) Where any ship, vessel, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance is ordered to be forfeited under subsection (3), the owner of such ship, vessel, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance may make a claim to the Court for the ship, vessel, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance to be restored to him.

(7) Where a claim is made to the Court under subsection (6), the Court may, subject to subsection (8), order that the ship, vessel, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance shall be restored to the owner thereof on payment by him of any expenses incurred for transporting and keeping such ship, vessel, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance for the purposes of this section.

(8) A Court shall not make an order under subsection (7) unless it is satisfied that the owner, charterer or master of the ship, vessel, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance, as the case may be—

- (a) did not permit any person convicted of an offence under subsection (1) to use the ship, vessel, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance for the purpose of conveying any firearm or ammunition in respect of which the offence was committed;
- (b) had no knowledge that any person convicted of an offence under subsection (1) would use the ship, vessel, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance for the purpose of conveying any firearm or ammunition in respect of which the offence was committed.

11. (1) A person who discharges a firearm or ammunition on or within forty metres of any public road or in any public place is liable on summary conviction to a fine of fifteen thousand dollars, except where he does so—

Restrictions relating to the discharge of firearms, etc. [3 of 2004 2 of 2011].

- (a) in the lawful protection of his person or property or of the person or property of some other person;

- (b) under the direction of some civil or military authority authorised to give such direction;
- (c) with the written permission of the Commissioner; or
- (d) as the holder of a provisional licence, issued by the Commissioner under section 16 and he discharges the firearm or ammunition on the shooting range named and for the purposes specified in the licence.

(2) A police officer may without warrant enter any premises on which he has reasonable cause to believe an offence under subsection (1) was committed and search for and seize any firearms and ammunition there found which he has reasonable cause to believe were used in such contravention and may retain such firearm or ammunition for so long as may be necessary for the purpose of any investigation in relation thereto, and where such investigation results in legal proceedings against any person for any such offence until such legal proceedings are finally determined.

(3) Nothing in subsection (1) shall apply in the case of the accidental discharge of a firearm.

(4) Where any person is charged with an offence under subsection (1), the burden of proving that the discharge of the firearm or ammunition in respect of which the contravention is alleged to have occurred was accidental or otherwise a lawful discharge shall lie upon the person asserting the same.

12. (1) A person who has in his possession any firearm or ammunition with intent by means thereof to endanger life or cause serious injury to property, or to enable any other person to endanger life or cause serious injury to property is, whether any injury to person or property has been caused or not, liable on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for life.

(2) Without prejudice to any other circumstances in which a person may be held to have had the specific intent required by subsection (1), a person shall be held to have had such intent, if,

Penalty for possessing firearms or ammunition with intent to injure.
[3 of 2004].

at the time he had a firearm or ammunition in his possession, he made any unlawful demand of, or any threat to, any other person.

13. (1) A person who makes or attempts to make any use whatever of a firearm or imitation firearm in furtherance of the commission of any offence or with intent to resist or prevent the lawful apprehension or detention of himself or some other person, is liable on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for fifteen years.

Penalty for use and possession of firearm or imitation firearms in certain circumstances. [2 of 2011].

(2) Where a person commits an offence against subsection (1) in respect of the commission of a felony or the lawful apprehension or detention of himself for any other arrestable offence committed by him, he is liable to the penalty provided by that subsection in addition to any penalty to which he may be sentenced for that felony or other arrestable offence.

(3) Where an offence in relation to a firearm or imitation firearm is charged, but the evidence establishes the commission of an offence in relation to an imitation firearm or firearm, respectively, the accused shall not be entitled to an acquittal, but he may be convicted of the offence of which the evidence establishes the commission.

(4) In this section “imitation firearm” means anything which has the appearance of being a firearm whether it is capable of discharging any ammunition or not.

13A. (1) A person who while he has a firearm with him, enters or is in any building or part of a building or any land as a trespasser without reasonable excuse, commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of thirty thousand dollars and to imprisonment for five years.

Trespassing with a firearm. [3 of 2004 2 of 2011].

(2) The onus of proving reasonable excuse shall be on the accused.

13B. A person commits an offence if he has a firearm with him while he is drunk or under the influence of a dangerous drug within the meaning of the Dangerous Drugs Act, and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of twenty thousand dollars and to imprisonment for two years.

Possession of firearm whilst under the influence of dangerous drugs. [3 of 2004]. Ch. 11:25.

Penalty for use of firearms or ammunition in contravention of terms or conditions of licences, etc. [2 of 2011].

14. Without prejudice to the foregoing provisions of this Part a person who, being the holder of a licence, certificate or permit, contravenes any of the terms or conditions thereof, is liable on summary conviction to a fine of three hundred dollars or to imprisonment for six months.

Prohibition on manufacture, etc., of firearm or ammunition. [22 of 1995, 3 of 2004, 2 of 2011].

15. (1) No person may manufacture or assemble any firearm or ammunition in Trinidad and Tobago and, in particular, a person other than the holder of a Gunsmith's Licence shall not—

- (a) shorten the barrel of any firearm;
- (b) convert into a firearm (other than a prohibited weapon) anything which is not a firearm; or
- (c) convert into a prohibited weapon anything which is not a prohibited weapon.

(2) The holder of a Gunsmith's Licence shall not do any of the things referred to in subsection (1), except with the prior written approval of the Commissioner of Police.

(3) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) is liable in the case of—

- (a) an offence in relation to the manufacture of prohibited weapons, on conviction on indictment to a fine of forty thousand dollars and to imprisonment for twenty-five years;
- (b) an offence in relation to the manufacture of firearms or ammunition, other than a prohibited weapon—
 - (i) on summary conviction to a fine of seventy-five thousand dollars and to imprisonment for fifteen years;
 - (ii) on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for twenty-five years;
- (c) an offence in relation to paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (1)(a) or (b)—
 - (i) on summary conviction to a fine of seventy-five thousand dollars and to imprisonment for fifteen years; or
 - (ii) on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for twenty-five years;

- (d) an offence in relation to paragraph (c)—
- (i) on summary conviction to a fine of seventy-five thousand dollars and to imprisonment for fifteen years;
 - (ii) on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for twenty-five years.
- (4) Any person who has in his possession a firearm—
- (a) the barrel of which has been shortened; or
 - (b) in relation to which an offence under subsection (1)(b) or (c) has been committed, shall be deemed, unless he proves the contrary, to have committed the offence under subsection (1)(a), (b) or (c), respectively.

PART II

LICENCES

GENERAL PROVISIONS

16. (1) Where a person intends to obtain a Firearm User's Licence for the first time, he shall prior to the grant of such a licence obtain a provisional licence from the Commissioner authorising him to discharge a firearm for the purpose of training in the use of such firearm.

Provisional licence.
[3 of 2004].

- (2) An application for a provisional licence shall—
- (a) be addressed to the Commissioner;
 - (b) be made in the prescribed form;
 - (c) contain the prescribed particulars;
 - (d) be accompanied by the prescribed number of photographs of the person to whom the licence, certificate or permit is desired to be granted;
 - (e) be accompanied by a certificate of good character issued by the Commissioner not less than three months prior to the date of application;
 - (f) carry a specimen of the signature of the person to whom the licence is to be granted;

- (g) be signed by the applicant;
- (h) be accompanied by such other documents, as may be prescribed by Regulations made by the Commissioner with the approval of the Minister subject to a negative resolution of Parliament.

(3) A provisional licence issued by the Commissioner under subsection (1), shall authorise the holder to discharge a firearm only for the purpose of training in the use of the firearm, and shall be restricted to a shooting range to be named in the licence.

(4) Where a provisional licence is issued under subsection (1), the holder of such a licence shall not discharge a firearm unless he is under the supervision of the holder of a Firearm User's Licence.

(5) A provisional licence issued under subsection (1) shall be valid for two months.

(6) Regulations made under subsection 2(h), shall be published in the Gazette.

Application for Firearm User's
Licence.
[3 of 2004].

16A. Upon the expiration of the period referred to in section 16(5) the person who held the provisional licence may apply for a Firearm User's Licence, and such application shall be accompanied by a certificate of competence issued by a licensed firearms instructor.

General provisions as to grant and issue
of licences, certificates and permits.
[3 of 2004].

17. (1) Subject to this section and to section 16, the grant of any licence, certificate or permit shall be in the discretion of the Commissioner of Police.

(2) No licence, certificate or permit shall be granted in relation to any prohibited weapon.

(2A) No licence, certificate or permit shall be granted to a person under the age of twenty-five years.

(3) No licence, certificate or permit other than a Firearm Disposal Permit shall be granted to, or held by a restricted person except with the prior permission of the President.

(4) A Firearm Import Permit, a Firearm User's Licence or a Firearm User's (Employee's) Certificate shall be granted by the Commissioner of Police only if he is satisfied that the applicant has a good reason for importing, purchasing, acquiring or having in his possession the firearm or ammunition in respect of which the application is made, and can be permitted to have in his possession that firearm or ammunition without danger to the public safety or to the peace; however, such a permit, certificate or licence shall not be granted to a person whom the Commissioner has reason to believe to be of intemperate habits or unsound mind, or to be for any reason unfit to be entrusted with such a firearm or ammunition.

(5) A licence or certificate shall not be issued to any person until the appropriate fee has been paid.

(6) A licence other than a provisional licence shall be valid for three years from the date of issue and may be renewed, upon payment of the appropriate fee for each renewal, by the Commissioner.

(7) An applicant for the renewal of a Firearm User's Licence under this Act shall submit with his application—

- (a) a certificate of competence issued by a licensed firearms instructor; and
- (b) such other documents as may be prescribed by the Commissioner.

(8) A licence held by a person prior to the coming into operation of this Act shall continue to be valid after the commencement of this Act.

18. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Commissioner, on the application of any person who is acting with the written consent of the holder of a Firearm User's Licence in respect of a particular firearm specified in such application, may grant to such person a Firearm User's (Employee's) Certificate which shall authorise such person to keep, carry and use in connection with the business of the holder of such Firearm User's Licence the particular firearm specified in such certificate and such ammunition therefor as may be so specified.

Firearm User's
(Employee's) Certificate.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), where application for a Firearm User's (Employee's) Certificate is made by a public officer for the purpose of the exercise of his functions as such, the Permanent Secretary in the Ministry to which that public officer is attached shall be deemed to be the holder of a Firearm User's Licence in respect of any particular firearm specified in such application.

General provisions as to licences, certificates and permits.

19. (1) Every licence, certificate or permit shall be in the prescribed form and shall contain the prescribed particulars and shall specify the conditions (if any) subject to which it is held and, if so prescribed, shall bear upon it a photograph of the prescribed dimensions of the person to whom it is granted and a specimen of the signature of such person.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), every licence, certificate or permit shall be subject to the prescribed conditions and to such other terms and conditions as the Commissioner may impose.

Amendment of licences, certificates and permits.

20. (1) The Commissioner of Police may at any time by notice in writing to the holder of a licence, certificate or permit vary the conditions other than such conditions as may be prescribed subject to which such licence, certificate or permit is held.

(2) A licence, certificate or permit may also, on the application of the holder thereof, be varied from time to time by the Commissioner.

Revocation of licences, certificates and permits.

21. The Commissioner of Police may revoke any licence, certificate or permit—

- (a) if, in the case of the holder of a Firearm Dealer's Licence or a Gunsmith's Licence, he is convicted of an offence against this Act or of an offence against the Customs Act;
- (b) if he is satisfied that the holder thereof is of intemperate habits or of unsound mind, or is otherwise unfit to be entrusted with such a firearm or ammunition as may be mentioned in the licence, certificate or permit;

Ch. 78:01.

- (c) for non-payment of fees;
- (d) in any other case, if he thinks fit.

21A. A person aggrieved by the decision of the Commissioner under section 17 or 21 may appeal to the Firearms Appeal Board established under this Act.

Appeals.
[22 of 1995].

21B. (1) Where the holder of a Firearm User's Licence or a Firearm User's (Employee's) Certificate is convicted of an offence under the Domestic Violence Act, the Commissioner may suspend his licence or certificate as the case may be for a period of five years from the date of conviction for such offence.

Restrictions on domestic violence offender holding Firearm User's Licence. [3 of 2004 2 of 2011]. Ch. 45:56.

(2) Where a person is convicted of a domestic violence offence under the Domestic Violence Act, the Commissioner may refuse to grant that person a Firearm User's Licence or a Firearm User's (Employee's) Certificate for a period of five years from the date of conviction.

21C. The Commissioner shall establish and maintain a register, to be known as "the Trinidad and Tobago Firearms Register", in which shall be kept, a record of—Firearms register. [3 of 2004].

- (a) every licence, registration certificate and permit that is issued, renewed or revoked by the Commissioner;
- (b) every application for a licence, registration certificate or permit or renewal thereof that is refused by the Commissioner;
- (c) every importation into or exportation from Trinidad and Tobago of a firearm and ammunition of which the Commissioner is informed under this Act;
- (d) every loss, finding, theft or destruction of a firearm and ammunition of which the Commissioner is informed under section 28; and
- (e) such other matters as may be prescribed.

Power to call in firearms and ammunition. [2 of 2011].

22. (1) The Commissioner of Police may at any time he considers it necessary or expedient for the purpose of safeguarding the safety of the public, by Notification published in the Gazette and in at least one daily newspaper circulating in Trinidad and Tobago, temporarily suspend any or all licences, certificates or permits granted by him under this Act and may by such Notification call upon the holders of such licences, certificates or permits to surrender all firearms and ammunition held by them by delivering the same to a police station.

(2) A person who fails (within such time as is specified in the Notification) to comply with a Notification under subsection (1) is liable on summary conviction to a fine of three thousand dollars or to imprisonment for nine months.

THE FIREARMS APPEAL BOARD

Establishment of Board. [22 of 1995].

22A. (1) There is established a Board to be known as the Firearms Appeal Board which shall hear and determine appeals from the decision of the Commissioner under sections 17 and 21.

(2) In the determination of an appeal, the Board shall either—

- (a) dismiss the appeal; or
- (b) allow the appeal and direct the Commissioner with or without conditions to grant or reinstate the licence, permit or certificate.

SPECIAL PROVISIONS

Special restrictions upon holders of Firearm
Dealer's
Licences.
[2 of 2011].

23. (1) A holder of a Firearm Dealer's Licence shall not deal in firearms or ammunition elsewhere than at the place specified in his licence or in any amendment thereof.

- (2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) is liable—
(a) on summary conviction to a fine of three thousand dollars or to imprisonment for eighteen months; or
(b) on conviction on indictment to a fine of five thousand dollars or to imprisonment for three years.

Restrictions relating to gunsmiths.
[2 of 2011].

24. (1) A person shall not undertake the repair, test or proof of a firearm or ammunition for any other person except under and in accordance with the terms of a Gunsmith's Licence.

(2) A holder of a Gunsmith's Licence shall not accept delivery of any firearm or ammunition for the purpose of effecting any alteration or repair thereto—

- (a) elsewhere than at the premises in respect of which he is licensed as a gunsmith; and

(b) from any person unless that person produces or causes to be produced a Firearm Dealer's Licence or a Firearm User's Licence authorising him to buy, sell or be in possession of, as the case may be, such firearm or ammunition.

(3) A holder of a Gunsmith's Licence shall forthwith record in the records to be kept by him pursuant to section 26 particulars of any licence or certificate produced to him pursuant to subsection (2)(b) and shall in due course return such licence or certificate to the person who produced it.

(4) Every holder of a Gunsmith's Licence who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) is liable on summary conviction to a fine of two thousand dollars or to imprisonment for twelve months.

25. (1) Every holder of a Firearm Dealer's Licence or a Gunsmith's Licence shall cause to be affixed and keep affixed over one of the principal entrances of the place in which or premises upon which he carries on business as a firearm dealer or a gunsmith, as the case may be, a board on which shall be printed in legible letters at least two inches in height the name in full of such licensee and the words "Licensed as a firearm dealer" or "Licensed as a gunsmith", respectively.

Notice to be displayed by licensees. [2 of 2011].

(2) A person who fails to comply with subsection (1) is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five hundred dollars or to imprisonment for six months.

26. (1) Every licensed dealer shall provide and keep a register of transactions and shall enter or cause to be entered therein such particulars as may be prescribed of all transactions relating to his business as a licensed dealer.

Records and returns. [2 of 2011].

(2) Every such entry shall be made within twenty-four hours after the transaction to which it relates took place, and, in the case of a sale or transfer, every such licensed dealer shall at the time of the transaction require the purchaser or transferee, if not known to him, to furnish particulars sufficient for identification, and shall immediately enter the said particulars in the register.

(3) Every such licensed dealer shall on demand allow any police officer duly authorised in writing in that behalf by the Commissioner of Police or any police officer of or above the rank of Inspector to enter and inspect all stock in hand and shall on request by—

- (a) any police officer duly authorised in writing in that behalf by the Commissioner; or
- (b) an officer of Customs; or
- (c) any police officer above the rank of Inspector, produce for inspection the register required to be kept under subsection (1), but so that any written authority required by this subsection shall be produced on demand.

(4) Every person who is required to keep a register of transactions under subsection (1) shall make such returns to such authority in such form, in respect of such periods, at such time and containing such particulars as may be prescribed.

(5) Every person who contravenes this section or knowingly makes any false entry in the register required to be kept under subsection (1) is guilty of an offence.

(6) Any person who in furnishing the particulars for any of the purposes of subsection (2) makes any statement which he knows to be misleading, false, or deceptive, or by any dishonest concealment of material facts, or by reckless making of any statement (dishonestly or otherwise) misleads or attempts to mislead any other person, is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five thousand dollars and to imprisonment for three years.

(7) In this section “licensed dealer” means the holder of a Firearm Dealer’s Licence or a Gunsmith’s Licence.

Database.
[3 of 2004].

26A. There shall be compiled and retained by the prescribed authority, a database of all licensed and, where possible, unlicensed firearms and ammunition located in Trinidad and Tobago.

PART III

POWER OF SEARCH AND TO OBTAIN INFORMATION

27. (1) The holder of a licence or certificate who is thereby authorised to carry a firearm and ammunition in a public place shall whenever he carries such firearm or ammunition in a public place have with him the licence or certificate in respect of such firearm and ammunition.

Carrying of firearms and ammunition in public places—
power of police
as to.
[3 of 2004
2 of 2011].

(2) Subject to subsection (4), except in the case of a person exempted by virtue of section 7, a police officer may require any person whom he sees or whom he believes to be carrying any firearm or ammunition in any public place to produce to him his licence or certificate in relation to such firearm or ammunition and to produce the firearm or ammunition.

(3) A person so required under subsection (2), who is so carrying a firearm or ammunition and who fails to produce the licence or certificate, as the case may be, or to permit the police officer to read the licence or certificate or to produce the firearm or ammunition or to permit him to examine the firearm or ammunition for the purpose of verifying the particulars in the licence or certificate, is guilty of an offence, and the provisions of subsection (4) as to search, seizure and retention of firearms and ammunition shall apply in any such case, and the police officer may, without warrant, arrest such person or may require that person to declare to him immediately his name and address.

(4) Where a police officer has reasonable cause to suspect that any person is carrying a firearm or ammunition in a public place contrary to any of the provisions of this Act, the police officer may search that person, and may seize and retain any firearm or ammunition carried by that person until such time as legal proceedings against that person for any offence in relation to such firearm or ammunition are finally determined, and may without warrant arrest such person.

(4A) A search of a woman under subsection (4), shall be carried out only by a female member of the Police Service, the Department of Customs and Excise, the Immigration Department or the Defence Force.

(5) A person so required under subsection (3) who refuses to declare his name and address, or fails to give his true name and address is guilty of an offence and the police officer may arrest without warrant any person who refuses so to declare his name and address, or whom he reasonably suspects of giving a false name or address or of intending to abscond.

(6) A police officer authorised in writing by the Commissioner may at any time require the holder of a licence, certificate or permit to produce for inspection the firearm and ammunition to which it relates, and any person who without good cause refuses or fails to do so is guilty of an offence.

(7) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to a fine of three thousand dollars or to imprisonment for eighteen months.

Report of loss or theft of firearm or ammunition,
etc.
[3 of 2004
2 of 2011].

28. (1) The holder of a licence, certificate or permit in respect of any firearm or ammunition and any other person lawfully in possession of any firearm or ammunition by virtue of section 7(2) shall, within twenty-four hours after he discovers the loss or theft of his licence, certificate or permit, if any, or of such firearm or ammunition, report the loss or theft at a police station.

(1A) The holder of a licence, certificate or permit in respect of any firearm or ammunition and any other person lawfully in possession of any firearm or ammunition by virtue of section 7(2) who loses such firearm or ammunition through negligence on his part commits an offence and is liable, on summary conviction, to a fine of seven thousand, five hundred dollars.

(1B) (Repealed by Act No. 2 of 2011).

(2) A person who fails to comply with subsection (1) is liable on summary conviction to a fine of seven thousand dollars or to imprisonment for three years.

Power to stop and search vehicles.
[3 of 2004
2 of 2011].

29. (1) A police officer in uniform may stop any vehicle for the purpose of ascertaining whether any firearm or ammunition is being conveyed therein and may search without warrant such vehicle, the driver thereof and any person conveyed therein.

(2) A person is liable on summary conviction to a fine of seven thousand dollars or to imprisonment for three years who—

- (a) being the driver or person operating a vehicle, fails to stop the vehicle at the request of a police officer under this section; or
- (b) being conveyed in a vehicle, prevents or intimidates the driver thereof or other person operating such vehicle from stopping at the request of a police officer under this section; or
- (c) escapes or attempts to escape from a vehicle after a request to stop under this section.

30. (1) A Magistrate or a Justice of the Peace on being satisfied by information on oath that there is reasonable ground for suspecting that an offence under this Act has been, is being, or is about to be committed or there is a substantial risk to the safety of the public may grant a search warrant authorising any police officer named therein with the assistance of such other persons as he may require—

Search warrants.
[3 of 2004
2 of 2011].

- (a) to enter at any time any premises or place named in the warrant, if necessary by force, and to search the premises or place and every person found therein; and
- (b) to seize any firearm or ammunition which he may find on the premises or in the place, or on any such person, in respect of which or in connection with which he has reasonable grounds for suspecting that an offence under this Act has been, is being, or is about to be committed and to retain such firearm or ammunition for so long as may be necessary for the purpose of any investigation in relation thereto, and, where such investigation results in legal proceedings against any person for any such offence, until such legal proceedings are finally determined.

(2) Where a firearm or ammunition is found on the premises, the police officer making the search may arrest without warrant any person found on the premises or in the place whom he has reason to believe to be guilty of an offence under this Act.

(3) A police officer or other person referred to in subsection (1), may in carrying out the search on the premises or place—

- (a) use or cause to be used any data processing system at the place to examine any data relating to arms and ammunition contained in or available to the system;
- (b) reproduce any record relating to arms and ammunition or cause it to be reproduced from the data in the form of printout or other intelligible output and remove the printout or other output for examination or copying; and
- (c) use or cause to be used any copying equipment at the place to make copies of any records, books, accounts or other document relating to arms and ammunition.

(4) Where in exercising the powers of a warrant under subregulation (3)(c), costs are incurred in respect of the copying equipment used, the person immediately responsible for paying such cost, on proof of such expenditure or costs shall be reimbursed, by the State, all sums thereof.

(5) A person who hinders, molests or interferes with any police officer or other person referred to in subsections (1) [and (3)], whilst such police officer or person is doing anything that he is authorised to do under this section or prevents or attempts to prevent a police officer or other such person from doing any such thing commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of fifteen thousand dollars and to imprisonment for six years.

PART IV

IMPORTATION OF FIREARMS, ETC.

31. (1) Notwithstanding any other law but subject to section 32, no person may import into Trinidad and Tobago any firearm or ammunition, except—

- (a) under and in accordance with the terms of a Firearm Import Permit (including a permit under section 33); or
- (b) firearms or ammunition that is cargo properly manifested to consignees elsewhere than in Trinidad and Tobago or that are the bona fide stores of any ship, vessel or aircraft in the custody of the proper officer authorised for the purpose.

(2) A person who contravenes or aids or abets any other person in contravening subsection (1) is liable—

(a) in the case of an offence relating to a prohibited weapon—

(i) on summary conviction to a fine of three hundred thousand dollars or to imprisonment for twenty years;

(ii) on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for twenty-five years;

(b) in the case of an offence relating to the importation of multiple firearms for distribution or resale, on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for life;

(c) in any other case—

(i) on summary conviction to a fine of seventy-five thousand dollars or to imprisonment for twelve years; or

(ii) on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for twenty years.

(3) (Deleted by Act No. 26 of 2006).

(4) Where a firearm is imported under subsection (1), such firearm shall be marked by the manufacturer with the name and address of the manufacturer and the serial number of the firearm, for the purposes of identification and tracing.

32. (1) Every person who disembarks from any ship, vessel or aircraft which comes into Trinidad and Tobago from any port or place outside Trinidad and Tobago shall, whether or not required so to do by any officer of Customs, declare to a Customs officer whether he has any, and, if so, what firearms or ammunition in his possession or under his control.

Travellers to make declaration of firearms and ammunition. [22 of 1995 3 of 2004 2 of 2011].

(2) A person referred to in subsection (1) other than a pleasure craft visitor who has any firearm or ammunition in his possession or under his control unless he is the holder of a Firearm Import Permit, shall either—

(a) cause such firearm or ammunition to be retained upon the vessel or aircraft upon which he came into Trinidad and Tobago until after such vessel or aircraft departs from Trinidad and Tobago; or

(b) deliver such firearm or ammunition to an officer of Customs to be dealt with in accordance with the Regulations.

(3) A pleasure craft visitor shall upon disembarking in Trinidad and Tobago lodge any firearm or ammunition in his possession with the officer of Customs at the port of disembarkation.

(4) Where the stay of the pleasure craft visitor is for a period exceeding four weeks, an officer of Customs shall deliver the firearm or ammunition to the police station which is located nearest to the port of disembarkation unless otherwise prescribed.

(5) The officer in charge of the police station referred to in subsection (4) shall provide an armed escort for the officer of Customs responsible for transporting the firearm or ammunition referred to in subsection (4) to and from that police station.

(6) Without prejudice to any other offence for which he may be convicted under this Act or any other written law, a person is liable on summary conviction to a fine of forty thousand dollars or to imprisonment for eight years who contravenes this section or makes a statement which he knows to be false or does not believe to be true.

Permission to take firearm abroad.
[26 of 2006
2 of 2011].

33. (1) Where the holder of a Firearm User's Licence is about to go outside Trinidad and Tobago and desires to take with him the firearm or ammunition to which such licence relates, he may apply to the Commissioner of Police in the prescribed form for a permit to do so.

(2) The Commissioner may if he thinks fit grant a written permit to any such licensee to take the firearm and ammunition with him, and where such permission is granted, nothing in section 31(1) shall be construed so as to cause such a licensee to be guilty of an offence thereunder by reason only of his bringing the firearm and ammunition back into Trinidad and Tobago on the occasion of his return, save that nothing in this subsection shall affect the operation of section 32 in relation to such firearm or ammunition.

(3) No person may export from Trinidad and Tobago any firearm or ammunition except—

- (a) under and in accordance with the terms of a written permit issued under subsection (2);
- (b) firearms or ammunition, that is, cargo properly manifested to a consignee elsewhere than in Trinidad and Tobago or that are the bona fide stores of any aircraft or vessel in the custody of the proper officer authorised for that purpose.

(4) Every person who is about to board any aircraft or vessel destined to leave Trinidad and Tobago shall, whether or not required to do so by any Customs Officer, declare to a Customs Officer whether he has any and, if so, what firearms and ammunition are in his possession or under his control.

(5) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to a fine of seventy-five thousand dollars and to imprisonment for fifteen years and on conviction on indictment to a fine of two hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars and to imprisonment for twenty years.

34. (1) A person is guilty of an offence if without lawful authority he has on his person or under his personal control any firearm, ammunition, explosive or offensive weapon—

- (a) when boarding or attempting to board or when disembarking from any aircraft or vessel; or
- (b) while on board any aircraft or vessel operated by a company registered in Trinidad and Tobago.

Special offence relating to firearms on aircraft or vessel. [3 of 2004 26 of 2006 2 of 2011].

(2) For the purposes of this section a person shall not be deemed to be acting with lawful authority unless he is acting in his capacity as a member of the Defence Force, established under the Defence Act, a police officer or as a security officer employed by the operators of the aircraft or vessel, save that where the operator is a company registered in Trinidad and Tobago the security officer shall not be deemed to be acting with lawful authority, unless he is the holder of a licence or certificate.

Ch. 14:01.

(3) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to a fine of seventy-five thousand dollars and to imprisonment for fifteen years and on conviction on indictment to a fine of two hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars and to imprisonment for twenty years.

(4) Nothing in this section shall apply to any person who obtains the prior permission of the Commissioner to embark or disembark from, or to be on any aircraft on a flight scheduled to take place exclusively in Trinidad and Tobago or a vessel sailing exclusively within the territorial sea, save that the operator of the aircraft or vessel may refuse to accept such a person as a passenger.

(5) In this section—

Ch. 16:02.

“explosive” has the same meaning as in the Explosives Act;

Ch. 11:09.

“offensive weapon” has the same meaning as in the Prevention of Crimes (Offensive Weapons) Act;

“Police Officer” includes a Customs Officer;

“security officer” means a person employed by the operators of an aircraft or vessel for the protection of the aircraft or vessel and its passengers while in flight or a vessel sailing exclusively within the territorial sea.

(6) For the avoidance of doubt it is hereby declared that the lawful possession of a licence to carry a firearm in any public place shall not in itself afford a defence to any proceedings under this section.

Service of notices.

38. Any firearm or ammunition seized and detained under this Act may be retained for as long as is necessary for the purpose of any examination, investigations, inquiries or legal proceedings; and subject to section 10 a Judge or Magistrate may, upon application made in such proceedings, direct such firearm or ammunition to be forfeited or otherwise disposed of as he considers just.

Forfeiture and disposal by Court.

39. (1) The President may prescribe fees (herein called the "appropriate fee") for the purposes of subsection (4) and section 17(5), and different fees may be prescribed for different classes of holders of licences, certificates or permits or for different types of firearms.

Appropriate fee.
[18 of 1972].

(2) Subject to subsection (4), the holder of a Firearm User's Licence that includes more than one firearm shall pay the appropriate fee for each firearm included in the licence.

(3) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, no fee shall be payable under this section by the owner of any slaughtering instrument or of any firearm or ammunition in respect of which the Commissioner of Police certifies that he is satisfied that such firearm or ammunition is of an obsolete type and is not intended by the owner to be used by himself or by any other person.

(4) The full amount of the appropriate fee shall be payable in respect of the period commencing with the date of grant of licence or certificate and ending with the next succeeding 31st day of March and thereafter shall be payable in respect of each year in which the licence or certificate is in force and on or before the 1st day of April in that year; but where a licence or certificate is first granted in the month of March in any year the appropriate fee shall be deemed to apply to the period ending on the 31st day of March of the next succeeding year, and thereafter shall be payable in respect of each year as mentioned above.

Custody of firearms and
ammunition.
[3 of 1994
3 of 2004
2 of 2011].

40. (1) Every person who comes into possession of any firearm or ammunition in the circumstances specified in section 7(1)(h) shall, within thirty days of coming into possession of such firearm or ammunition, unless he has obtained a Firearm User's Licence in respect thereof within such period, deliver such firearm or ammunition to the officer in charge of the police station nearest to the place at which he comes into possession of such firearm or ammunition together with a written statement as to the date on which, and the circumstances in which, he came into possession of such firearm or ammunition.

(2) Where any holder of any Firearm User's Licence is about to leave Trinidad and Tobago and does not desire to take the firearm or ammunition to which such licence relates with him, he shall before leaving Trinidad and Tobago arrange for the storage of such firearm or ammunition at a police station.

(3) A person who holds a Firearm User's Licence and has a firearm in his possession shall, when not carrying such firearm on his person ensure that it is safely stored out of the reach of children.

(4) Subject to subsections (6) and (7), the holder of a Firearm User's Licence may, if he does not desire to retain in his possession the firearm or ammunition to which such licence relates, surrender the licence and deliver the firearm or ammunition to the officer in charge of the police station nearest to the place at which he is ordinarily resident.

(5) Subject to subsections (6) and (7), every firearm and any ammunition received at any police station under this section shall—

- (a) be delivered to any person who produces a Firearm User's Licence granted to him in relation to such firearm or ammunition either before or after the date on which such firearm or ammunition was received at such police station; or
- (b) if not delivered to any person in accordance with paragraph (a) within twelve months of the date on which it was received at such police station, render the owner thereof liable thereafter for payment of a storage fee in such sum or at such rate as may be prescribed and if such fee is not paid within six months of the expiry of the period of twelve months mentioned above the firearm or ammunition, or both as the case may be, shall be forfeited to the State.

(6) A private security firm or company may, upon payment of a fee of twenty dollars per firearm per month or such other fee as the President may by Order prescribe, store firearms or ammunition at a police station for the duration of the month or part thereof, in respect of which the fee is paid.

(7) A firearm or ammunition received at a police station under subsection (6) shall be delivered to the firm or company upon the production of a Firearm User's Licence issued in relation to it and upon the payment of any arrears accruing under subsection (6).

(8) A person who fails to comply with subsection (1), (2) or (3), is liable on summary conviction to a fine of fifteen thousand dollars or to imprisonment for six years.

41. (1) All documents issued by or under the authority of the Commissioner of Police shall be received in evidence in any proceedings for an offence under this Act, in every case in which the original document would be admissible in evidence by production of a copy or extract purporting to be certified by the Commissioner of Police or by a First Division police officer above the rank of Senior Superintendent as set out in the First Schedule to the Police Service Act.

Evidence.

Ch. 15:01.

(2) Any copy or extract made in pursuance of this section may be in print or in writing, or partly in print and partly in writing.

(3) No proof shall be required of the handwriting or official position of any person certifying in pursuance of this section to the truth of any copy of or extract from any document.
