- (b) the engagement by a person in a sexual act with—
 - (i) an incapacitated person; or
 - (ii) a person who cannot express consent.

(3) Notwithstanding the penalty imposed under section 18 or 19, where a person is convicted under any of those sections and he engages in sexual intercourse with a child who is under the age of 12 years, the Court shall impose a term of imprisonment for the remainder of his natural life.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3) “sexual intercourse” has the meaning assigned to it under section 25 of the Sexual Offences Act.

Ch. 11:28.

(5) Notwithstanding any penalty imposed for an offence under this Act, where a—

- (a) police officer;
- (b) customs officer;
- (c) immigration officer;
- (d) member of the Defence Force;
- (e) member of the Prison Service; or
- (f) any other official or public officer having the coercive power of arrest under any other written law, is found to be liable for any offence under this Act, he is liable on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for twenty-five years.

Unlawfully procuring, destroying, concealing, removing, confiscating or possessing any travel document or identification document belonging to another.

22. A person who, for the purpose of trafficking in persons or trafficking in children and acting or purporting to act as another person's employer, manager, supervisor, contractor, employment agent, or solicitor of clients, and who knowingly procures, destroys, conceals, removes, confiscates, or possesses any travel document, or other government identification document, whether actual or purported, belonging to another person, commits an offence and is liable on conviction on indictment to a fine of three hundred and fifty thousand dollars and to imprisonment for twelve years.

Transporting a person for the purpose of exploiting that person's prostitution.

23. (1) A person who transports or conspires to transport another person into or within Trinidad and Tobago or across an international border for the purpose of exploiting that person's prostitution commits an offence and is liable on conviction on indictment to a fine of three hundred and fifty thousand dollars and to imprisonment for twelve years.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), where a person is convicted under subsection (1) and there is the presence of the following aggravating factors resulting from acts of the convicted persons:

- (a) transporting two or more persons at the same time;
- (b) causing permanent or life-threatening bodily injury to the person transported;
- (c) transporting of a child or children; or
- (d) transporting as part of the activity of an organised criminal group, the Court may impose an additional term of imprisonment of up to twenty years and order that the conveyance used for transporting the victim be forfeited by the State.

Forfeiture.

24. (1) Where a person has been convicted of the offence of trafficking in persons or trafficking in children, and the Court is satisfied that any property, including but not limited to money, valuables and other movable and immovable property of the person convicted was used or intended to be used or was obtained in the course of the crime or any benefits were gained from the proceeds of the crime, the Court shall order that the property or benefit be forfeited to the State to accrue to the Seized Assets Fund.

(2) Overseas assets of persons convicted of trafficking in persons or trafficking in children shall also be subject to forfeiture.

(3) Any property to be forfeited to the State under this section, shall be forfeited in accordance with the Proceeds of Crime Act. Ch. 11:27.

25. A person who receives or obtains a financial or other benefit, knowing that it results from the offence of trafficking in persons commits an offence and is liable on conviction on indictment to a fine of four hundred thousand dollars and to imprisonment for fifteen years. Knowingly receiving financial benefit from trafficking in persons.

26. A person who receives or obtains a financial or other benefit, knowing that it results from the offence of trafficking in children commits an offence and is liable on conviction on indictment to a fine of five hundred thousand dollars and to imprisonment for twenty years. 28. (1) Where a body corporate or its director, manager, secretary or other similar officer concerned with the management of a body corporate has been convicted of an offence under this Act, the Court shall have the power, in addition to the power to impose the penalties prescribed for the stated offence to— Additional penalties.

- (a) revoke business licences;
- (b) order that the body corporate be wound up;
- (c) forfeit the assets and properties of the body corporate to the Seized Assets Fund; and
- (d) prohibit the body corporate from performing any further activities.

Compensation for victims and rules of Court relating thereto.

29. (1) Where a person is convicted of the offence of trafficking in persons or trafficking in children, the Court may, in accordance with Rules made under subsection (4), order that compensation be paid to the victim by the person convicted or out of the proceeds of any property forfeited under section 24.

(2) Compensation shall be adequate and shall compensate, where applicable, for any of the following:

- (a) costs of medical and psychological treatment;
- (b) costs of physical and occupational therapy and rehabilitation;
- (c) costs of necessary transportation, temporary housing and child care;
- (d) lost income;
- (e) attorney's fees and other legal costs;
- (f) compensation for emotional distress, pain and suffering;
- (g) any other losses suffered by the victim which the Court considers applicable; and
- (h) where the victim is not a national of, or resident in, Trinidad and Tobago, the cost of returning that person to the country of origin or residence or such third country which will accept his entry.

(3) Compensation payable under this section shall be paid to the victim as soon as practicable after the making of an Order under subsection (1) and in addition to any other remedy or penalty in relation to the offence.

(4) The Rules Committee of the Supreme Court may, subject to negative resolution of Parliament, make rules with respect to the making of an Order for restitution under subsection (1) and any other procedure for giving effect to the Order.

(5) Where there are no rules made by the Rules Committee of the Supreme Court with respect to the making of an Order for restitution under subsection (1) and any other procedure for giving effect to the Order, the Judge may give directions to effect the same.

30. (1) Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, where a person is convicted of an offence of trafficking, the victim may also apply to the Court for compensation, and the Court shall order that the convicted person pay compensation to the victim.

Further compensation for victims.

(2) Victims of trafficking are also eligible to apply for relief under section 29 of the Criminal Injuries Compensation Act.

Ch. 5:31.

(3) Where an order for compensation to the victim is made in a Court and the victim seeks further compensation in another Court, the Court that awards further compensation shall take into account the amount of compensation already ordered where the Court makes a further order.

(4) The return of the victim to the victim's home country, normal place of residence in Trinidad and Tobago, or other absence of the victim from the jurisdiction, shall not prejudice the victim's right to receive compensation or restitution.

31. Where a victim has been compelled to engage in unlawful activities as a direct result of being trafficked and he has committed any immigration-related offence, or any other criminal offence for which he is being prosecuted, he may offer as a defence, evidence of having been compelled as a victim of trafficking to engage in such unlawful activities.

Victim may offer a defence.

PART VI

ASSISTANCE TO AND PROTECTION OF VICTIMS OF TRAFFICKING

32. In the investigation and prosecution of offences relating to trafficking in persons, the following guiding principles shall apply:

Guiding principles relating to the protection and safety of victims and the identification of victims.

- (a) all steps necessary to identify the victims of trafficking shall be taken;
- (b) a victim of trafficking shall be given reasonable protection to prevent recapture, and to secure him from threats, reprisals and intimidation by the traffickers and their associates;

- (c) where the victim's family resides in Trinidad and Tobago, they shall be given reasonable protection to secure the family from threats, reprisals or intimidation by the traffickers or their associates; and
- (d) the victim shall have an opportunity to consult with an attorney-at-law or other appropriate persons or agency with respect to his rights, safety and welfare.

Witness protection.

33. (1) Victims of trafficking who are witnesses or potential witnesses shall be eligible for applicable witness relocation and protection programmes for victims of organised criminal activity or other serious offences, if it is determined that an offence involving a crime of violence directed at the witness or potential witness is likely to be committed.

(2) The programmes referred to in subsection (1) may include—

- (a) relocation;
- (b) new identity and documents establishing identity;
- (c) new residence;
- (d) work permits; or
- (e) protection of confidentiality of identity and location.

Protection of the privacy of victims, including proceedings held in camera.

34. (1) In a prosecution for trafficking under this Act, the identity of the victim and the victim's family shall be kept confidential by ensuring that names and identifying information of the victim and the victim's family are not released to any member of the public or published in the press or media.

(2) A hearing under this section shall be held in camera unless the Court otherwise directs.

(3) A person who commits a breach of confidentiality under this section is liable on summary conviction to a fine of one hundred thousand dollars.

Information for victims.

35. The Minister shall cause victims of trafficking to be informed, in a language that they can understand, of their legal rights and the progress of Court and administrative proceedings, as appropriate, including but not limited to—

- (a) proceedings involving the criminal offenders;
- (b) proceedings for the return of the victims to their country of citizenship or lawful residence; and
- (c) procedures for seeking legal immigration status under the Immigration Act.

Ch. 18:01.

36. Upon conviction of a person for an offence of trafficking under this Act, the Court may provide an opportunity to the victim of trafficking, if the victim desires it, to present his views and concerns.

Opportunity for the presentation of the victim's views and concerns.

37. (1) Victims of trafficking who are not nationals of Trinidad and Tobago and their accompanying dependent children, may receive for the duration of their stay in Trinidad and Tobago, such social benefits including—

Assistance to victims.

- (a) appropriate housing, education and training opportunities;
- (b) psychological counselling;
- (c) legal assistance and legal information; and
- (d) medical assistance,

as may be determined by the Minister to whom the responsibility for social development has been assigned.

(2) Victims who are participants in the Justice Protection Programme may have the option to communicate with and receive visits from family and friends, subject to the terms and conditions of the programme.

(3) In the absence of exigent circumstances, victims of trafficking, once identified as such, shall not be housed in prisons or other detention facilities for accused or convicted criminals.

(4) Child victims of trafficking, once identified as such, shall not be housed in prisons or other detention facilities for accused or convicted criminals under any circumstances.

(5) “Justice Protection Programme” referred to in subsection (2) has the meaning assigned to it in the Justice Protection Act.

Ch. 5:33.

Immigration status of victims.

38. The Minister may provide victims of trafficking and accompanying dependent children with appropriate permits or other required authorisation to allow them to remain and work in Trinidad and Tobago for the duration of the criminal prosecution against the traffickers.

Return of victims and accompanying dependents to country of citizenship or lawful residence.

39. (1) Where victims of trafficking do not desire to remain in Trinidad and Tobago, the Minister and the Minister to whom responsibility for foreign affairs has been assigned shall facilitate the safe return of the victims of trafficking and any accompanying dependent children to their countries of citizenship or lawful residence.

(2) In giving effect to subsection (1), the Ministers may consult with such non-governmental organisations and international organisations as they deem fit.

Assistance for victims abroad who are nationals or permanent residents.

40. The Minister to whom responsibility for foreign affairs has been assigned, through Trinidad and Tobago's diplomatic missions and consular offices abroad, where practicable, shall—

- (a) offer consular assistance, including the provision of necessary travel documents to nationals and residents of Trinidad and Tobago who are abroad and have been identified as victims of trafficking; and
- (b) disseminate information to nationals and residents of Trinidad and Tobago who are abroad and have been identified as victims of trafficking on the rights of victims of trafficking under the laws of Trinidad and Tobago and the laws of the country to which the missions are accredited.

Verification of nationality and age of victim.

41. (1) Upon a request by a competent authority of another State, the Minister shall, without undue or unreasonable delay, verify whether a person who is a victim of trafficking is a national of, or has resident status in, Trinidad and Tobago.

(2) A request made under subsection (1) may include a request for the verification of—

- (a) the name and age of a person who is a victim of trafficking in persons and who is suspected of being a minor; and

(b) any other immigration status the victim may have in Trinidad and Tobago.

(3) The Minister shall designate an officer to deal with requests made under this section.

42. (1) The Minister may make a determination as to the right of victims of trafficking abroad to return to Trinidad and Tobago, where those victims claim to be citizens or persons who have resident status in Trinidad and Tobago but whose identity cannot be verified through ordinary means and who have demonstrated significant connections to Trinidad and Tobago.

Assistance to victims who are unable to prove their resident status through ordinary means.

(2) Victims of trafficking abroad, referred to in subsection (1), may seek to satisfy the Minister of their right to return to Trinidad and Tobago, by demonstrating significant connections to this country through such factors including—

- (a) place of birth;
- (b) presence of family members;
- (c) significant knowledge of specific geographical areas and neighbourhoods;
- (d) long-term residence in Trinidad and Tobago; or
- (e) any other means.

(3) Where the Minister has determined that an individual is eligible to re-enter Trinidad and Tobago under this section, the diplomatic mission abroad shall issue a travel document, permitting entry.

(4) Victims may apply to the High Court for a review of an adverse determination.

43. Victims of trafficking who return from abroad shall have access to educational and training programmes provided by any governmental or private entity without being differentiated from other participants on the basis of having been trafficked.

Services for returned victims of trafficking.

44. (1) Assistance in this Part shall be provided by the Counter-Trafficking Unit to trafficking victims who are children in a manner that is in the child's best interest and appropriate to the child's situation.

Special consideration to be given to child victims.

(2) The Counter-Trafficking Unit shall liaise with the Children’s Authority and other appropriate agencies to provide victims who are children with services, which may include the understanding of their rights, privacy, housing, care and appropriate support.

(3) The Counter-Trafficking Unit, in consultation with the Children’s Authority, shall develop special programmes for child victims including—

- (a) arrangements, whenever safe and possible, for children to be reunited with their family members in Trinidad and Tobago or in their country of origin; and
- (b) arrangements to facilitate the provision of special mental and physical medical care tailored to children’s needs.

PART VII

MISCELLANEOUS

Minister to lay annual report in Parliament.

45. (1) The Minister shall, within three months after the end of each year, cause a copy of the annual report on trafficking in Trinidad and Tobago to be laid in the Parliament.
