CHAPTER 48:53

MAXI-TAXI ACT

An Act to re-enact the Maxi-Taxi Act, Ch. 48:53.

[12TH JUNE 1992]

Commencement.

WHEREAS it is enacted inter alia by section 13(1) of the Constitution that an Act of Parliament to which that section applies may expressly declare that it shall have effect even though inconsistent with sections 4 and 5 of the Constitution and, if any such Act does so declare, it shall have effect accordingly:

And whereas it is provided by subsection (2) of the said section 13 of the Constitution that an Act of Parliament to which that section applies is one the Bill for which has been passed by both Houses of Parliament and at the final vote thereon in each House has been supported by the votes of not less than three-fifths of all the members of that House:

And whereas it is necessary and expedient that the provisions of this Act shall have effect even though inconsistent with sections 4 and 5 of the Constitution:

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the Maxi-Taxi Act.

   (2) This Act shall have effect even though inconsistent with sections 4 and 5 of the Constitution.

2. (1) In this Act—

   “Administering Authority” or “Authority” means the Licensing Authority appointed in accordance with the provisions of section 4 of the Motor Vehicles and Road Traffic Act for the registration, licensing and control of motor vehicles;

   “Advisory Committee” means the Committee appointed by the Minister under section 4;

   “maxi-taxi” means a public service motor vehicle with seating accommodation for not less than nine nor more than twenty-five passengers;
“permit” means a permit issued under section 7(1) and includes a permit to own and operate a maxi-taxi issued prior to the commencement of the *Maxi-Taxi (Amendment) Act, 1994; 6 of 1994. “system” means the maxi-taxi system.

(2) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, an operator of a maxi-taxi is deemed, for all purposes including that of the Motor Vehicles Insurance (Third Party Risks) Act, to be the servant or agent of the owner of the maxi-taxi.

3. (1) The Administering Authority shall be charged with the responsibility for implementing and regulating the system.

(2) In the exercise of its functions under subsection (1), the Authority shall collaborate with—
   (a) the Advisory Committee;
   (b) the Police Department—Traffic Division;
   (c) the Transport Board;
   (d) the Highways Division;
   (e) the Public Transport Service Corporation; and
   (f) the Ministry of Legal Affairs.

4. (1) The Minister shall appoint an Advisory Committee for the purpose of assisting the Authority in the exercise of its functions under this Act.

   (2) The Committee shall consist of not more than seven persons who by their qualifications or experience, or both, are competent to assist the Authority in carrying out its functions.

   (3) The Committee shall be paid such remuneration and allowances as may be determined by the President.

5. (1) The Authority shall determine the type of vehicle suitable for use as a maxi-taxi and in so doing, shall take into account—
   (a) its safety as a public service vehicle;
   (b) the convenience and comfort of the passengers;
   (c) the availability of the vehicle as well as its spare parts in Trinidad and Tobago;

(d) the facilities available for assembling the vehicle locally; and
(e) such specifications of the vehicle as may be prescribed.

(2) The Authority shall by Notice published in the Gazette and in a daily newspaper circulating in Trinidad and Tobago publish the type of vehicle selected for use as a maxi-taxi.

6. (1) The Authority shall compile and maintain a register of maxi-taxi owners.

*(2) A person who on the commencement of the Maxi-Taxi (Amendment) Act, 1994 is the holder of a valid permit to own and operate a maxi-taxi is entitled, without application, to be registered under subsection (1).

(3) A person who is desirous of owning a maxi-taxi may apply to the Authority to be registered as a maxi-taxi owner.

(4) An application under subsection (3) shall be in the prescribed form.

(5) For the purposes of regulating the number of maxi-taxis operating on a route, the Authority may, with the approval of the Minister, suspend in respect of that route the registration of additional maxi-taxi owners for such period as it thinks fit and shall cause notice of the suspension to be published in the Gazette and a daily newspaper circulating in Trinidad and Tobago.

6A. (1) Subject to subsection (2), no person shall operate a maxi-taxi unless he is the holder of a valid permit to do so.

*(2) A person who on the commencement of the Maxi-Taxi (Amendment) Act, 1994 is the holder of a valid permit to own and operate a maxi-taxi is deemed to be the holder of a valid permit to operate a maxi-taxi.

(3) A person who is desirous of operating a maxi-taxi may apply to the Authority for a permit to do so.

(4) An application under subsection (3) shall be in the prescribed form and shall be accompanied by a certificate of good character.

(5) An applicant referred to in subsection (3) shall—

(a) be the holder of a valid taxi-driver’s licence and badge; and

(b) be the holder of a valid class 4 driver’s permit where the maxi-taxi he proposes to operate is a heavy motor vehicle.

(6) In this section, “heavy motor vehicle” means a motor vehicle described under class 4 in section 50 of the Motor Vehicles and Road Traffic Act.

7. (1) The Authority shall issue to an applicant a permit to operate a maxi-taxi where it is satisfied that he has complied with all the requirements of this Act and the Regulations governing applications for such permits.

(2) A permit shall be subject to such conditions as may be prescribed and breach of any such conditions may result in its revocation.

8. (1) There is hereby established for the purposes of this Act a Tribunal which shall comprise the following persons to be appointed by the President after consultation with the Prime Minister and the Leader of the Opposition:

(a) a person who holds legal qualification; and

(b) two persons with knowledge of and experience in the operation of public service vehicles.

(2) The Tribunal shall hear and determine all appeals from decisions of the Authority in the exercise of its functions and duties under this Act and, in particular, respecting the refusal of a permit under this Act.

(3) No appeal shall lie to any Court from a decision of the Tribunal.

9. (1) Where, in exercise of powers contained in any hire-purchase agreement or mortgage bill of sale or other similar form of agreement or instrument, a maxi-taxi is repossessed, the repossessor shall not be in breach of any of the provisions of this Act by reason only of the fact that he is not the holder of a permit to operate a maxi-taxi.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not be construed as authorising the repossessor to use a maxi-taxi which has been repossessed as such a taxi unless he obtains the prior approval in writing, of the Administering Authority to operate the vehicle on its usual route or a new route.

(3) A repossessor who contravenes subsection (2) is liable on summary conviction to a fine of one thousand dollars and in the case of a continuing offence to a further fine of fifty dollars for each day during which the offence continues after conviction.

10. (1) A person to whom a permit is issued or a person by whom a maxi-taxi has been repossessed shall not, without the prior approval in writing, of the Authority, use the maxi-taxi for commercial purposes, other than the transportation of passengers.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) is liable on summary conviction—

(a) to a fine of five thousand dollars, where the contravention takes place within four years of the vehicle’s first being registered as a maxi-taxi; or

(b) to a fine of one thousand dollars, where the contravention takes place after the expiration of the period referred to in paragraph (a).

(3) In addition to the penalty imposed by paragraph (a) of subsection (2), a person who is found guilty under that paragraph shall—

(a) have his permit revoked; and

(b) be liable for the repayment of an amount equivalent to the customs duty and the motor vehicles tax which would have been ordinarily payable.

(4) All sums payable under subsection (3) shall be recoverable summarily as a civil debt.
11. (1) A person who operates a maxi-taxi without a valid permit to do so commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five thousand dollars.

(2) An owner of a maxi-taxi who employs or allows a person, not being the holder of a valid permit, to operate the maxi-taxi, commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five thousand dollars.

(3) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (2), a mechanic may, for the purpose of testing a maxi-taxi and without using it for hire, drive the maxi-taxi on a public road.

12. (1) No vehicle, other than a maxi-taxi may be painted or decorated in such a manner and in such a combination of colours as are likely to cause the vehicle to be mistaken for a maxi-taxi.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) is liable on summary conviction to a fine of three thousand dollars and to a further fine of two hundred dollars for each day during which the offence continues after conviction.

12A. (1) Subject to subsection (2) the use of televisions, videos, radios, tape decks, compact disc players, amplifiers, equalisers, speakers or other electrical or electronic equipment for the purpose of playing music or other electrically or electronically transmitted sounds in a maxi-taxi is prohibited.

(2) Subject to such conditions and technical specifications as the Administering Authority may by Order prescribe, the use of a radio is permitted in a maxi-taxi.

(3) A person who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five thousand dollars.

13. (1) The Authority may with the approval of the Minister make such Regulations as it considers necessary for the operation of this Act and in particular may make Regulations—

(a) prescribing all that is required by this Act to be prescribed;

[6 of 1994].

[5 of 2010].
Validation.
Ch. 48:53.

(b) governing the criteria by which a permit to operate a maxi-taxi shall be issued;
(c) specifying route areas;
(d) governing the operation of maxi-taxis on route areas;
(e) governing the allocation of maxi-taxis to specific route areas;
(f) prescribing fees required to be paid under this Act;
(g) restricting the number of maxi-taxis to be allocated to a successful applicant; and
(h) pertaining to the colour in which a maxi-taxi may be painted.

(2) Regulations made under subsection (1) shall be subject to affirmative resolution of Parliament.

(3) Regulations made under subsection (1) may provide for a penalty of three thousand dollars for any breach thereof.

14. All acts and things done or omitted to be done under the Maxi-Taxi Act (hereinafter called “the former Act”) shall, notwithstanding any law to the contrary, be deemed to have been lawfully done or omitted under this Act as if this Act had been in force at the commencement of the former Act and all legal proceedings pending and all permits and other documents issued and in force at the commencement of this Act or made under the former Act shall continue to have full force and effect as if commenced, made or issued under this Act.

MAXI-TAXI REGULATIONS

made under section 13

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Maxi-Taxi Regulations.

2. In these Regulations—
   “the Authority” means the Administering Authority referred to in the Act;
   “colour” means the colour in which a maxi-taxi is required to be painted and includes the colour bands of the specific route area as set out in the Third Schedule;
   “normal work day” means any day except Saturdays, Sundays or public holidays;
   “route area” means the route area specified in the Fourth Schedule;
   “specification” means the physical and mechanical standards set out in the Fifth Schedule which a vehicle must satisfy in order to qualify for use as a maxi-taxi.

3. For the purposes of the Act and these Regulations there shall be five route areas in Trinidad and one route area in Tobago. The route areas shall be divided in accordance with the delineation shown in the maps attached to the Fourth Schedule.

4. (1) A maxi-taxi shall be painted off-white in colour with two colour bands, the first two hundred millimetres wide and the second fifty millimetres wide with a distance of ninety millimetres between the bands.

   (2) The bands shall be painted around the mid-portion of the vehicle and the colour of the band shall correspond to the colour shown opposite the respective route areas set out in the Third Schedule.

5. (1) An application to be registered as an owner of a maxi-taxi shall be made to the Authority in the form set out as Form 1A in the First Schedule and shall be accompanied by a fee of one hundred dollars.

(2) An application for a permit to operate a maxi-taxi shall be made to the Authority in the form set out as Form 1B in the First Schedule and shall be accompanied by a fee of one hundred dollars and the recommendation of two persons who—
   (a) are not related to the applicant;
   (b) have known the applicant for at least three years; and
   (c) hold a responsible position in a company, organisation or the Public Service.

(3) A certificate issued under regulation 5A shall be in the form set out as Form 1C in the First Schedule.

(4) A permit to operate a maxi-taxi shall be in the form set out in the Second Schedule.

5A. Subject to section 6(5) of the Act and regulation 6, where a person applies to be registered as the owner of a maxi-taxi, the Authority shall, on being satisfied that the applicant has complied with section 6 of the Act and regulation 5(1), issue to the applicant a certificate authorising the applicant to acquire a maxi-taxi pending the grant of registration.

6. The Authority shall not, except where the applicant is a society within the meaning of the Co-operative Societies Act, register a person as the owner of more than one maxi-taxi.

7. (1) Subject to regulation 8, the operator of a maxi-taxi shall, on normal working days, operate the maxi-taxi only in the route area for which the maxi-taxi is registered.

   (2) A person who contravenes subregulation (1) is liable on summary conviction to a fine of one hundred and fifty dollars and in the case of a continuing offence to a further fine of twenty-five dollars for each day during which the offence continues after conviction.
8. (1) A maxi-taxi may, on normal work days, be operated outside of the route area for which it is registered for the following purposes:

(a) to conduct sight-seeing, cultural, recreational, familiarisation or similar tours; or

(b) to convey members of a group—educational, sporting, religious or otherwise—on a charter basis to a named destination.

(2) A maxi-taxi operating under this regulation shall be clearly marked “chartered”.

9. (1) The registered owner of a maxi-taxi may, upon payment of a fee of one hundred dollars and with the prior approval in writing of the Authority, change the route area for which the maxi-taxi is registered.

(2) Where approval is given to change a route area, the colour bands of the new route area shall replace those previously used.

(3) A person who contravenes any of the provisions of this regulation is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five hundred dollars and to a further fine of fifty dollars for each day on which the offence continues after conviction.

10. (1) The operator of a maxi-taxi shall prominently display in such taxi a scale of fares for the route area to which it is allocated.

(2) A person who contravenes subregulation (1) is liable on summary conviction to a fine of fifty dollars and to a further fine of five dollars for each day in which the offence continues after conviction.

11. The operator of a maxi-taxi shall prominently display his permit in the maxi-taxi and shall produce it on the request of a Transport Officer or a Police Officer in uniform.

12. (1) Subject to subregulation (2) and regulation 13, no maxi-taxi shall have painted, written or otherwise displayed on its front or rear windscreen or its windows, any picture, painting, advertisement or caption of any sort.
(2) The owner of a maxi-taxi may display his name or the name of the maxi-taxi on the front or rear windscreen of the vehicle, within an area not exceeding fifteen centimetres from the top of the windscreen.

13. The operator of a maxi-taxi standing for hire at a taxi-stand or plying for hire shall prominently display a destination sign in the lower left-hand corner of the front windscreen of the maxi-taxi.

14. The operator of a maxi-taxi shall not, without reasonable excuse—

   (a) refuse to be hired by a passenger when the maxi-taxi is standing for hire at a taxi stand;

   (b) refuse to accept a passenger with a reasonable amount of luggage.

15. (1) Where a maxi-taxi is at a public stand, the operator of the maxi-taxi shall, unless he can show good and substantial cause for doing otherwise, remain standing by or seated in the maxi-taxi.

   (2) Maxi-taxis standing for hire in a public stand shall receive passengers and leave the stand according to their priority of position in the stand.

   (3) On the departure of a maxi-taxi from a public stand, the maxi-taxi next in rear thereto shall move forward and occupy the vacant place, and in like manner other maxi-taxis in rear shall move forward in the line and occupy the vacant spaces immediately, in front of them.

   (4) The operator of a maxi-taxi shall not receive passengers within one hundred metres from the public stand for the route along which he is plying for hire.

16. The operator of a maxi-taxi shall ensure that—

   (a) all the doors of the maxi-taxi are closed while the maxi-taxi is in motion;
(b) all passengers, including the conductor are properly seated;

(c) no one stands on the footboard of the maxi-taxi, while the maxi-taxi is in motion;

(d) no passenger in excess of the number for which the maxi-taxi is licensed to carry, is carried in the maxi-taxi;

(e) the maxi-taxi is not used for any indecent or immoral purpose;

(f) his Taxi Driver’s badge is conspicuously displayed in the maxi-taxi while he is standing, plying or driving for hire;

(g) he is suitably attired.

17. (Regulation 17 was not included in LN No. 172/1994).

18. (1) Subject to subregulation (2), an operator of a maxi-taxi may engage the services of a conductor at such times as he thinks fit.

(2) An operator shall not employ a person as a conductor unless that person is the holder of a maxi-taxi conductor’s permit.

(3) The Authority shall, upon application in writing, issue a maxi-taxi conductor’s permit to a person who has attained the age of eighteen years and who has a police certificate of good character.

(4) A conductor of a maxi-taxi shall not—

(a) use obscene or abusive language or make insulting gestures;

(b) call out or otherwise attempt to influence a person to travel by maxi-taxi;

(c) stand on the footboard of the maxi-taxi, while the maxi-taxi is in motion;

(d) consume or be under the influence of any alcoholic or narcotic substance while on duty.

(5) A conductor shall be suitably attired.
19. A person who contravenes any of these Regulations commits an offence and is liable, on summary conviction, to a fine of—

(a) five hundred dollars for the first offence; or
(b) five hundred dollars and the cancellation of his permit for any subsequent offence.

20. (1) The Authority may cancel the permit of any person who is convicted of any offence against these Regulations or section 12A of the Act.

(2) Where the Authority proposes to cancel a permit, the Authority shall inform the operator of the substance of what is alleged against him and shall consider any explanations or representations made by the operator in writing in connection with any such proposed cancellation within seven days thereafter.

(3) If the operator notifies the Authority that he wishes to make oral representations or adduce witnesses in connection with a proposed cancellation, the Authority shall hear such representations or witnesses or shall direct his Deputy or such other officer as he may appoint to hear and determine the matter in dispute.

(4) Cancellation may be effected by notice to the operator and on any such cancellation it shall be in the discretion of the Licensing Authority to refuse any further licensing of the vehicle as a maxi-taxi whilst in the same ownership.
