ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE
(DEOXYRIBONUCLEIC ACID) ACT

An Act to repeal and replace the Deoxyribonucleic Acid (DNA) Act, No. 24 of 2007. 5 of 2012.

[10TH MAY 2012]

Commencement.

WHEREAS it is enacted inter alia by section 13(1) of the Constitution that an Act of Parliament to which this section applies may expressly declare that it shall have effect even though inconsistent with sections 4 and 5 of the Constitution and, if any such Act does so declare, it shall have effect accordingly: Preamble.

And whereas it is provided by section 13(2) of the Constitution that an Act of Parliament to which this section applies is one the Bill for which has been passed by both Houses of Parliament and at the final vote thereon in each House has been supported by the votes of not less than three-fifths of all members of that House:

And whereas it is necessary and expedient that the provisions of this Act shall have effect even though inconsistent with sections 4 and 5 of the Constitution:

PART I

PRELIMINARY

1. This Act may be cited as the Administration of Justice (Deoxyribonucleic Acid) Act. Short title.

2. This Act shall have effect even though inconsistent with sections 4 and 5 of the Constitution. Act inconsistent with the Constitution.

3. This Act applies to the investigation and prosecution of offences committed before, on or after the coming into operation of this Act. Application.

PART II

FORENSIC DNA LABORATORIES

5. (1) The Trinidad and Tobago Forensic Science Centre shall be the official forensic DNA laboratory for Trinidad and Tobago.

Official forensic DNA laboratory. [11 of 2014].

(2) The Trinidad and Tobago Forensic Science Centre shall have custody of and control over all DNA samples.

(3) For the purposes of this Act, a register to be known as “the DNA Register” shall be established by the Trinidad and Tobago Forensic Science Centre.

Co-operation with accredited laboratories.

6. The Government may, for the purpose of obtaining forensic DNA services, enter into an agreement with a laboratory that is—

First Schedule.

- (a) accredited by an international accrediting body listed in the First Schedule; and
- (b) approved by the Minister by Notification.

PART III

THE NATIONAL FORENSIC DNA DATABANK OF TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO

DNA profiles may be kept indefinitely in Forensic DNA Databank.

7. (1) There shall be a DNA databank to be known as “the National Forensic DNA Databank of Trinidad and Tobago” which shall comprise an electronic or other collection of DNA profiles attributed to individuals or crime scenes.

(2) Subject to section 26, DNA profiles stored in the Forensic DNA Databank shall be kept indefinitely.

Appointment of Custodian and Deputy Custodian.

8. (1) There shall be a Custodian of the Forensic DNA Databank who shall be a public officer and shall be responsible for receiving and storing all DNA profiles—

- (a) from the Trinidad and Tobago Forensic Science Centre; or
- (b) submitted to the Government pursuant to an agreement under section 6, and for carrying out searches against the Forensic DNA Databank.

(2) There shall be a Deputy Custodian of the Forensic DNA Databank who shall—

- (a) be a public officer; and
- (b) in the absence or incapacity of the Custodian, act in his place.

(3) The Custodian shall be provided with—

- (a) adequate staff; and
- (b) funding, as may be appropriated by Parliament, to assist in the performance of his functions and duties.

9. (1) Without prejudice to the power of the Public Service Commission to make an appointment to the office of Custodian or Deputy Custodian, where prior to the making of the first appointment, after the Act comes into operation, the exigencies of service require a person to perform functions related to that office, the Minister may engage a person on contract, in order to secure the interests of the Forensic DNA Databank. Transitional.

(2) The engagement of a person on contract under subsection (1) shall be in accordance with the guidelines for contract employment established by the Chief Personnel Officer.

10. (1) The Custodian shall—

- (a) maintain the Forensic DNA Databank;
- (aa) have sole custody and control of the Forensic DNA Databank;
- (ab) have sole custody of all DNA profiles received by him for uploading unto the Forensic DNA Databank;
- (ac) determine the suitability of DNA profiles for uploading onto the Forensic DNA Databank;
- (b) conduct searches against the forensic DNA Databank;
- (c) ensure that DNA data is securely stored and remains confidential;
- (d) perform such functions and duties as may be required of him under this Act or any other written law,

Functions and duties of Custodian.
[11 of 2014].

and in the exercise of such functions, act independently.

(2) The Custodian or any person acting under and in accordance with his general or special instructions under subsection (3) shall be deemed to be a Government expert for the purposes of the Evidence Act.

Ch. 7:02.

(3) The functions of the Custodian under this section may be exercised by him in person or through other persons acting under and in accordance with his general or special instructions.

Report.

11. (1) The Custodian shall, within three months after the end of each calendar year, submit an annual report of his operations to the Minister.

(2) The Minister shall cause the report referred to in subsection (1) to be laid in Parliament within one month of his receipt of the report or as soon as practicable thereafter, but not later than six months after receipt.

PART IV

OBTAINING NON-INTIMATE AND INTIMATE SAMPLES

Persons may volunteer to give a sample.

Form 1.
Second
Schedule.

Obtaining a non-intimate sample without consent.
[11 of 2014].

12. A person may volunteer to give a sample for forensic DNA analysis and shall for that purpose complete and submit the form set out as Form 1 in the Second Schedule.

13. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a police officer or qualified person shall take a non-intimate sample from a person without his consent where—

- (a) the person is a suspect, detainee or accused;
- (b) a stain derived from a crime scene exists and there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that that person was involved in the offence and for believing that forensic DNA analysis could confirm or disprove such suspicion;
- (c) the person has had a non-intimate sample taken and that sample—
 - (i) has proved to be either unsuitable or insufficient for forensic DNA analysis;
 - (ii) is lost or destroyed; or
 - (iii) cannot be used for any other reason; or
- (d) the person is not a victim of an offence, attends a crime scene and is required by an investigating officer to give a non-intimate sample.

(2) No one other than a qualified person shall take a non-intimate sample from a person without his consent where—

- (a) the person is—
 - (i) admitted to a hospital; and

Schedule.
Conditions for taking an intimate sample.

19. A qualified person who takes an intimate sample from a person shall ensure that—

- (a) it is taken in circumstances affording reasonable privacy to the person from whom the sample is being taken;
- (b) it is taken in the presence or view of a person who is of the same sex as the person from whom the sample is being taken and, where the person from whom the sample is being taken so requests in writing, in the presence of a specified person of the opposite sex;
- (c) it is not taken in the presence or view of a person whose presence is not necessary for the purpose of taking the intimate sample;
- (d) the taking of the sample does not involve the removal of more clothing than is necessary;
- (e) the taking does not involve more visual inspection than is necessary; and
- (f) the procedure is carried out in a manner consistent with appropriate medical or other relevant professional standards.

20. (1) Where a sample is to be taken from a child or incapable person under this Act, the sample shall not be taken unless the representative of the child or incapable person is present when the sample is being taken.

Right of child or incapable person to have representative present. [11 of 2014].

(2) Where a sample is taken under subsection (1), the person taking the sample shall complete and submit the form set out as Form 6 in the Second Schedule.

Second Schedule.

21. (1) A person authorised under this Act to take a sample, or a person assisting such a person, may use reasonable force to take and protect the sample.

Use of force.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not apply where a sample is to be taken from a complainant.

PART V

PROCEDURE FOR TAKING NON-INTIMATE AND INTIMATE SAMPLES AND POST COLLECTION PROCEDURES

22. A police officer or qualified person who takes a sample from a person under this Act shall—

Dealing with a DNA sample.

- (a) place the sample in a container;
- (b) seal and label the container with an identifying mark;
- (c) place the container in a package;
- (d) seal the package; and
- (e) label the package with the same identifying mark that is shown on the label affixed to the container.

23. (1) A person who takes a sample under this Act shall—

Storage and delivery of package. [11 of 2014].

- (a) as soon as practicable, submit the sample to the Trinidad and Tobago Forensic Science Centre for forensic DNA analysis;

Schedule

(c) complete the form set out as Form 4 in the Second Schedule.

(2) A person who receives the package containing the sample at the Trinidad and Tobago Forensic Science Centre for forensic DNA analysis shall—

- (a) ensure that the package is properly sealed, labelled and identifiable both by him and the person who delivers the package; and
- (b) record such information as may be prescribed by Regulations.

DNA Record.
[11 of 2014].

23A. (1) In every place or institution where DNA samples are collected, a record entitled “DNA Record” shall be kept in which it shall be recorded every instance in which a sample is taken at such place or institution.

(2) The procedures for the keeping of the DNA Record shall be prescribed by Regulations.

Duties of forensic DNA analyst.
[11 of 2014].

24. (1) A forensic DNA analyst who conducts a forensic DNA analysis shall prepare and submit a certificate of analysis in accordance with subsections (2), (2A) and (2B).

(2) Where a certificate of analysis is prepared in respect of any matter which is under investigation or before a Court and that sample was taken and submitted by a police officer, a forensic DNA analyst shall submit that certificate of analysis to the relevant investigating officer.

(2A) A forensic DNA analyst shall submit a certificate of analysis that is prepared in respect of a sample taken—

- (a) by a qualified person; and
- (b) in relation to a matter under investigation or before the Court, to the relevant investigating police officer, the Court or the relevant parties before the Court and a copy of the certificate of analysis shall be submitted to the relevant qualified person.

UNOFFICIAL VERSION

UPDATED TO 31ST DECEMBER 2016

(2B) A forensic DNA analyst shall submit a certificate of analysis that is prepared in respect of a sample taken—

(a) for the purpose of applying for employment as a person listed in the Third Schedule; or to the Custodian, who shall keep all certificates of analysis received by him strictly confidential and secured, unless he is required to disclose that certificate of analysis, pursuant to any written law or Order of the Court.

(b) from a person specified in the Third Schedule, Third Schedule.

(3) A forensic DNA analyst shall submit a DNA profile obtained by him through forensic DNA analysis to the Custodian for storing in the Forensic DNA Databank. Ch. 7:02.

(4) A Forensic DNA analyst shall be deemed to be a Government expert for the purposes of the Evidence Act.

25. (1) Subject to subsections (2), (3) and (4), where a sample is not destroyed during forensic DNA analysis, the Trinidad and Tobago Forensic Science Centre shall keep the sample for a minimum period of five years from the date on which the analysis was completed and thereafter the sample may be destroyed. Retention of sample.
[11 of 2014].

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a Court may order that a non-intimate or intimate sample that has been taken under this Act, shall not be destroyed, if the Court is satisfied that the sample might reasonably be required for the investigation or prosecution of an offence or for the purposes of an appeal.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the Trinidad and Tobago Forensic Science Centre shall, within three months after the end of each calendar year, provide the Commissioner of Police and the Director of Public Prosecutions with a list of any samples which it proposes to destroy.

(4) Where the Commissioner of Police after consultation with the Director of Public Prosecutions does not object to the destruction of a sample on a list referred to in subsection (3) within three months of receiving the list, the Trinidad and Tobago Forensic Science Centre shall destroy the sample.

Expungement of profile in certain circumstances.
[11 of 2014].

26. (1) Notwithstanding section 7(2), where the Commissioner of Police, after consultation with the Director of Public Prosecutions, is of the view that the DNA profile of a complainant is no longer necessary in relation to a matter under investigation or before the Court he shall, in writing, notify the complainant or, where the complainant is a child or an incapable person, his representative, of the decision to expunge the DNA profile from the Forensic DNA Databank.

(2) A complainant or his representative shall, within three months of the date of the notification under subsection (1), indicate in writing to the Commissioner of Police whether he objects to the expungement of his DNA profile from the Forensic DNA Databank.

(3) Where a complainant or his representative fails to indicate, after the expiration of three months from the date of the notification, whether he has an objection to the expungement of his DNA profile from the Forensic DNA Databank, the Commissioner of Police shall, in writing, inform the Custodian of the Forensic DNA Databank that the DNA profile may be expunged.

(4) Where the Custodian is informed, pursuant to subsection (3), that the retention of a complainant's DNA profile is no longer necessary, he shall take the necessary steps to have the DNA profile expunged from the Forensic DNA Databank.

(5) Notwithstanding section 7(2) and subject to subsections (6) and (7), a complainant or, where the complainant is a child or an incapable person, his representative, may apply to the Commissioner of Police to have his DNA profile expunged from the Forensic DNA Databank.

(6) Where an application is made under subsection (5) for a DNA profile to be expunged from the Forensic DNA Databank and the Commissioner of Police, after consultation with the Director of Public Prosecutions, is of the view that the DNA profile of that complainant should not be expunged on the grounds that it is needed in relation to a matter under investigation or before the Court he shall, in writing, inform the complainant or his representative that the DNA profile will not be expunged on the grounds that it is needed in relation to a matter under investigation or before the Court.

(7) Where an application is made under subsection (5) for a DNA profile to be expunged from the Forensic DNA Databank and the Commissioner of Police, after consultation with the Director of Public Prosecutions, is of the view that the DNA profile of the complainant is no longer necessary in relation to a matter under investigation or before the Court he shall, in writing, inform the Custodian of the Forensic DNA Databank that the profile may be expunged.

(8) Where the Custodian is informed, pursuant to subsection (7), that the retention of a complainant's DNA profile is no longer necessary, he shall—

- (a) take the necessary steps to have the DNA profile expunged from the Forensic DNA Databank; and
- (b) notify the Commissioner of Police, in writing, that the complainant's DNA profile has been expunged.

(9) The Commissioner of Police, on receiving the notification referred to in subsection (8) from the Custodian of the Forensic DNA Databank, shall inform the complainant, in writing, that his DNA profile has been expunged from the Forensic DNA Databank.

(10) Notwithstanding section 7(2), where a sample is taken from a child, the Custodian shall cause the DNA profile derived from that sample to be expunged from the Forensic DNA Databank after the expiration of ten years from the date on which the profile was generated.

(11) Notwithstanding section 7(2), where a sample is taken from a person who is exonerated, the DNA profile derived from that sample shall be destroyed and expunged from the Forensic DNA Databank, after the expiration of twenty years from the date of exoneration.

(12) Notwithstanding the destruction of a sample under section 25, where a DNA profile is retained from the period of the destruction of the sample to the twenty-year period at subsection (11), the profile is deemed to be the profile related to the sample destroyed and the profile may be used as evidence in any matter involving the person to whom the profile relates.

PART VI
MISCELLANEOUS

Arrangement with foreign governments to share DNA data.

27. The Government of Trinidad and Tobago may enter into an arrangement with the government of another country under which DNA data—

- (a) in Trinidad and Tobago, that may be relevant to the investigation of an offence against the law of that country, is provided to the appropriate authority in that country for the investigation of, or proceedings for, that offence; and
- (b) in that country, that may be relevant to the investigation of an offence in Trinidad and Tobago, is provided to the Commissioner of Police for the investigation of, or proceedings for, that offence.

Immunity.

28. (1) No proceedings, civil or criminal, shall be brought against a person using reasonable force in respect of the taking of a non-intimate or an intimate sample in accordance with this Act.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not apply to any proceedings on the ground of any negligent act or omission in the taking of a non-intimate or an intimate sample.

Disclosure and confidentiality. [11 of 2014].

29. (1) The Custodian or a person authorised by him may disclose DNA data to—

- (a) a police officer acting in the course of a criminal investigation or proceeding;
- (b) the person from whom a non-intimate or an intimate sample was taken or his representative;
- (c) a country making a request, which is accepted by the Central Authority, for mutual assistance in criminal matters;
- (d) a forensic DNA analyst making a request for a DNA profile;
- (e) a person who has obtained an Order of the Court for disclosure of DNA data;
- (f) a Court; or

(g) a governmental agency, or an educational institution approved by the Minister for the sole purpose of research, provided that no personally identifiable information is disclosed.

(1A) A forensic DNA analyst may disclose findings contained in certificates of analysis only when required to do so pursuant to—

- (a) an Order of the Court;
- (b) this Act; or
- (c) any other written law.

(2) A person who discloses DNA data otherwise than in accordance with subsections (1) and (1A), commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of one hundred thousand dollars and to imprisonment for seven years.

(3) The Custodian, the Deputy Custodian or any person employed or assigned duties at the Trinidad and Tobago Forensic Science Centre shall treat all records and information relating to DNA data as secret and confidential and shall make and subscribe to an oath of secrecy to that effect before a Justice of the Peace in the form set out as Form 5 in the Second Schedule.

Form 5.
Second
Schedule.

30. (1) A person who wilfully and without authorisation—

Offences.

- (a) gives false information as to the existence of a DNA profile in the Forensic DNA Databank;
- (b) discloses or obtains DNA data or DNA profiles;
- (c) breaks the seal of or opens or causes to be opened any package;
- (d) in any manner tampers with or destroys a sample or the container or package containing a sample;
- (e) adds, deletes or modifies any information in the Forensic DNA Databank;
- (f) falsifies information required under this Act;
- (g) gains or attempts to gain access to the Forensic DNA Databank;

- (h) gains or gives access to a non-intimate or an intimate sample;
- (i) uses a non-intimate or an intimate sample; or
- (j) fails to submit DNA profiles to the Forensic DNA Databank, commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of one hundred thousand dollars and to imprisonment for seven years.

(2) A person who, for the purpose of providing a non-intimate sample or an intimate sample under this Act, impersonates any other person, commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of one hundred thousand dollars and to imprisonment for ten years.

Refusal or obstruction when sample is being taken.

31. Where a person from whom a sample is to be taken under this Act, other than a complainant, refuses to give a sample, or otherwise obstructs or resists a police officer or a qualified person in the exercise of his functions under this Act, that person commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of ten thousand dollars and to imprisonment for two years.

Post-conviction forensic analysis.

32. (1) Where, before the coming into force of this Act, a person—

- (a) was convicted of an offence; or
- (b) was convicted of an offence and has filed an appeal against that conviction or sentence or both, he may make a request, in writing, to the Commissioner of Police for forensic DNA analysis.

(2) The Commissioner of Police shall grant a request under subsection (1) where—

- (a) evidence containing DNA material was collected in connection with the trial and it still exists; and

(b) the person referred to in subsection (1) volunteers to give a sample under section 12.

(3) The Commissioner of Police shall, in writing, inform a person who makes a request under this section of his decision to grant or deny the request within one month of receiving the request.

(4) Where the Commissioner of Police grants a request under this section, he shall make arrangements for the carrying out of the forensic DNA analysis requested as soon as practicable.

33. (1) In any criminal proceedings a document purporting to contain information required to be recorded under this Act, is admissible as evidence of the facts and opinion stated in it without proof of the signature or appointment of the person who recorded the information, unless the Court, acting ex proprio motu or at the request of a party to the proceedings, requires that person to be called as a witness.

Documentary evidence.

(2) The Court is not bound to require the attendance of that person as a witness if the Court is of the opinion that the request for such attendance is frivolous or vexatious or made for the purpose of delaying or defeating the ends of justice.

34. (1) The Minister may make Regulations for the purpose of giving effect to this Act.

Regulations.

(2) Regulations made under subsection (1) are subject to affirmative resolution of Parliament.

35. The Minister may by Order amend the First and Second Schedules.

Power to amend Schedules.

36. Every act or thing done by the Trinidad and Tobago Forensic Science Centre under the purported authority of the Deoxyribonucleic Acid (DNA) Act, repealed by this Act, that would have been lawfully done if the Trinidad and Tobago
